BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

Explanations Are Beneath Mrs. Fusty

Mr. Heinste isn't too fond of Mrs. Fusty, mainly because she refuses to listen to his long-winded post-mortems after every hand. And when he is berating his partner for some real or fancied misplay Mrs. Fusty always takes up for the underdog.

Mrs. Fusty opened the jack of diamonds and Mr. Dale won with the ace and returned the queen. Mr. Heinste won the second trick with the king of diamonds.

Unheralded Fullback Runs 69 Yards To Climax Ti-Cats' Preview Contest

By The Canadian Press

An unheralded fullback from the United States gave 12,000 Hamilton football fans an eyeful Wednesday night.

Jim Phuille, from Bradley University, ran 69 yard, on a screen pass play to climax a night of long runs that the Tiger-Cats this season will have a fast club, although consensus of observers was that it could stand more strength along the wingline.

Phuille played for the Yellowjackets which lost 23-12 to the Whites, in a test which demonstrated that the Tiger-Cats this season will have a fast club, although consensus of observers was that it could stand more strength along the wingline.

At Winnipeg, Indian Jack Jacobs, Blue Bombers' venerable quarterback, brought cheers from the crowd of 3,000 watching the club's scrummage Wednesday night. Jacobs, up against stiff quarter competition from the younger Buddy Leake and George Elliott, also of Oklahoma, showed his old form. Missouri import half Leo Lewis worked well.

Bob (Winnipeg Free Press) Moir says through depth, the Bomber line is much stronger than last year's. He added: "It's no contest in the backfield. Winnipeg has never enjoyed such versatility."

Two imports left the Vancouver Lions camp, leaving 20 still on hand. Tommy Bice, who had suffered from a pulled groin muscle and didn't round into shape, went to Wichita, Kas., and a teaching post. Jerry Johns accepted an offer to teach and coach football at a Kentucky high school.

The Lions have a long list of signing, including Dougie Reid with a blood blister on his foot, Jimbo Chambers with a charley horse, Ron Pinchbeck with a torn rib cartilage, Steve Cook with

Tennis Draw Not Important As Aussies Favored to Win

By HENDERSON WARD
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTRÉAL, Que.—Players to meet in the Davis Cup North American zone final will be named today when caps are drawn at west-end Mount Royal Tennis Club where the Australian-Canada series is to be played.

The Australians are top-heavy favorites to win the tie and it's unlikely to make much difference how the draw turns out. General sentiment is that Canada will be lucky to win one match out of five in the series.

The Canadian captain Harry Hopman of the Aussie squad nor Vancouver's Jim Skeeton have been willing to name their doubles or singles players in advance of the draw.

Asked for comment on the Australian player after he watched them work out here yesterday Skeeton said simply: "They sure hit hard, don't they?"

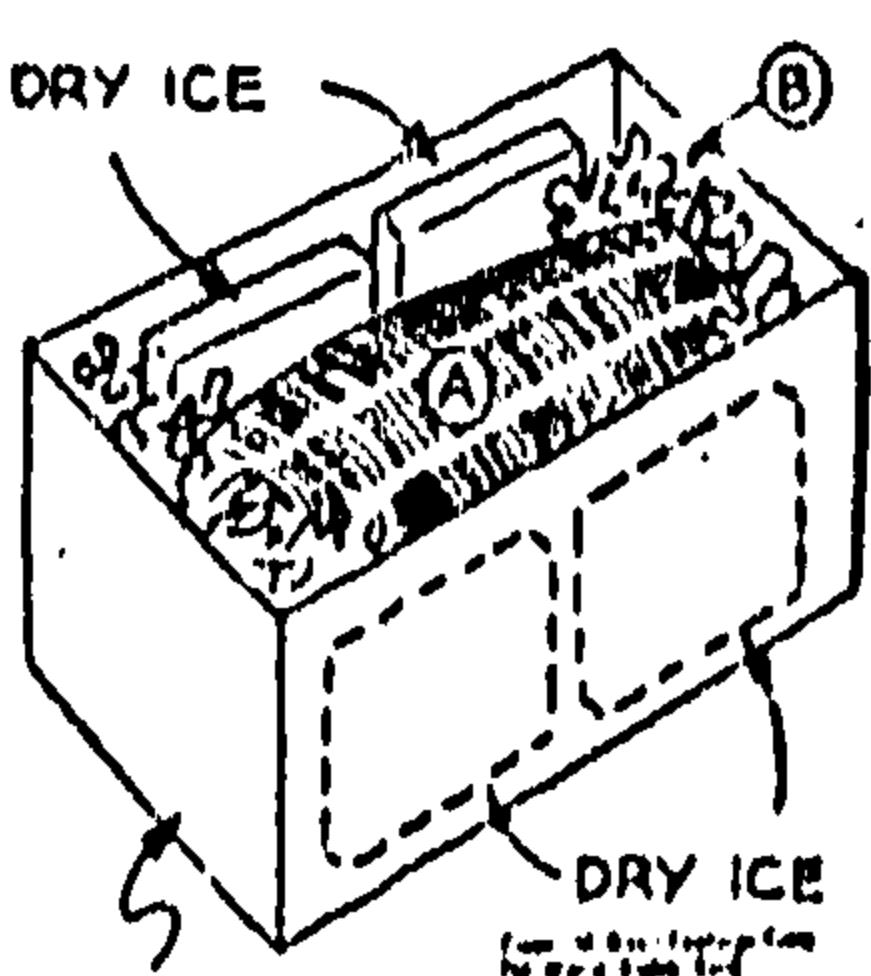

The Australians are looking forward to today to get in at least one day's practice on grass courts before the tie starts. They arrived here from Louisville, Ky., Tuesday, but decided to rest up following the trip.

RAINED OUT

Wednesday, rain sent them off the courts most of the day and they were able to practice only a
