

Royal Escort Given Aiyansh Bride-Groom

Royal escort was given the Naas River bride following the wedding ceremony of Ena Ryan and Roy Aiyansh in the St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral here with Canon Basil S. Prockter officiating.

The wedding party in the cathedral was the most elaborate in the history of the town. The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a pink and blue sash. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a red tie. The bridesmaids wore dresses of various pastel shades.

The gathering was entirely composed of people from the Naas River. The wedding party included the bride, groom, bridesmaids, and a royal escort.

Special speakers at the reception included Fred McKay, Henry McKay, Henry McMillan, James Adams, George Martin, Charles Leeson, Mrs. Emma Wright and Joseph Innes of Kitkatla.

The occasion also marks Fall Pancake Festival week in Canada, a joint promotion of the Canada Starch Company who are supplying the syrup, and Aunt Jenima.

All preparations for the meal will be in the hands of Jaycees, as will be the serving and entertainment. Jaycee Pancake Breakfast will be staged in the auditorium of the Civic Centre, and will form a part of Community Week at the centre.

Tickets for the breakfast will be available from the first week of October on, and at the breakfast room door. Junior Chamber officials who expect a large turnout for the breakfast are busy preparing fun and entertainment.

The Chamber has received the co-operation of The Quaker Oats Company of Canada Limited on the project, in that all flour needed for the preparation of the breakfast will be supplied free of charge.

Jaycees To Stage Pancake Breakfast

A novel means of fund raising has been chosen by the executive and members of the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce, it was reported today.

The Junior Chamber, in need of funds for the advancement of Community Betterment projects has announced plans for a gigantic Jaycee Pancake Breakfast October 18th.

Breakfast will consist of generous portions of pancakes, served with bacon or sausages and syrup in an atmosphere of entertainment.

The Chamber has received the co-operation of The Quaker Oats Company of Canada Limited on the project, in that all flour needed for the preparation of the breakfast will be supplied free of charge.

The occasion also marks Fall Pancake Festival week in Canada, a joint promotion of the Canada Starch Company who are supplying the syrup, and Aunt Jenima.

Nurses Group Hears Official Speak on CARS

Executive secretary of the B.C. division of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society, Mary Paek was guest of honor when the Prince Rupert Chapter of Registered Nurses Association held its regular meeting in the Nurse's Residence, last night.

Miss Paek spoke to the group on the work of CARS and illustrated her talk with colored slides.

Prior to the arrival of Miss Paek, the meeting saw a film which pointed out the signs and symptoms of polo.

Mrs. Kenneth Wilmut, vice-president, chaired the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Alek Bill, president.

Annunciation Men To Stage Games At CWL Bazaar

Men of the Parish of the Annunciation church will feature games of skill when the Catholic Women's League stages its two-day bazaar in the school hall, starting tomorrow.

Some of the games of skill to be featured both Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings are air-rifle shooting, basketball throw, test of strength and darts.

Training courses are being planned during the latter part of November for present leaders and new volunteers.

Following the business session, the six Prince Rupert Boy Scouts who attended the Eighth

World Jamboree, entertained the meeting with films they had taken during their stay at Nagara-on-the-Lake.

A running commentary on the films was given by the six Scouts: Bruce Roald, Carl Ellingsen, Phillip Thom, Everett Hall, Jack Rudolph and Robin Cameron.

Scout Groups Plan Recruiting Campaign

A Boy Scout and Cub leadership recruiting campaign was planned when the Prince Rupert Boy Scout District Committee held its regular meeting Thursday night in the Civic Centre with president Dr. Morris Wayman in the chair.

It is hoped that the campaign, illustrating to parents and friends the various facets of Scouting, will encourage residents to volunteer their services as Cub and Scout leaders.

As part of the campaign, a Jamboree will be staged November 6, to display Cub and Scout activities to the public.

Hockey's Here Again!

STAR WEEKLY PREVIEWS 1955-56 SEASON

It takes two good teams to make a good game of hockey, and a group of good teams to make a well-balanced league. That's the reason for the big pre-season shuffle now going on in the National Hockey League. Four teams start the season with new coaches. Surprising player transfers are being made. Read "A Closer Race in the NHL?" It's a standout feature of this week's Star Weekly.

The Klondike Lives Again

KLONDIKE! Fifty years ago men braved Arctic ice and snow on foot to seek their fortunes. A Klondike rush is on again. Urged by the promise of nickel, copper, silver, lead, asbestos and oil, prospectors with modern equipment are combing the Klondike creek area once more. Read "The Klondike Trail of '55".

"Petticoat Rule" Proves Popular

Just one man offered himself for public office in Bishop's Itchington, England, so the voters elected five women to serve with him on the parish council. The men woke up. They offered a male slate at the next election but all five women were re-elected. Read the feature "When Gran-les Take Over a Town."

Oklahoma—an "Engineered" Movie

Scientists, engineers, agriculturists—play leading parts in the movie version of Oklahoma. They won't be seen on the screen but the story of the research and experiments made to produce the colored movie of this great stage success—and the statistics—provide most interesting reading for movie fans.

A Look at Paris Fashions

Fashions in the French motif are described and pictured in this week's presentation of The Star Weekly fashion parade. To quote: "The essence of the Paris look is that little something which evokes the Orient—long slender clothes with high necklines... lack of trimmings... sombre colors (black No. 1 favorite)... embroidered on evening dresses"
