Council Backs Film; Huns Bicycle Licensing

Plan of bicycle safety, now known in this city, was planned to be shown to all members of the Prince Rupert Teacher Council at their meeting Monday at the C.A.T. Centre.

Meeting that the Parent Council support a bylaw on the licensing of bicycles was discarded.

After the presentation of the annual Peace Bursary for the best student at the high school graduation exercises in October, to defer the plan until September has been discussed by the teachers.

The teacher is being left in charge of the bursary, created by President Alan Lortan.

Some one also decided that the Bursary, delegate to the Parent-Teacher Federation, should be discussed by the teachers.

Funeral services were held yesterday at Grenville Court Chapel of B.C. Undertakers for Gee Ton Que, 63 of 637 Second Avenue West who died Friday at Prince Rupert General Hospital.

Following last rites conducted by Dr. E. A. Wright of the First Presbyterian Church, a short service was conducted in Chinese by Liang Bo Sheng. The hymns "Never My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me" were sung. C. R. Chidwick played the organ.

Mr. Gee is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Tuc S. Tom in Yuba City, California and two sons, Gee Chul Hong in Hong Kong and Gee Lin Hee in China.

Interment was at Fairview Cemetery. Pallbearers were Wong Wa, Mah Fong, Mah Tan, Wong Hong, Gee Jack and Gee Soon.

Alan B. Currie Wed To Donalda Letourneau

Amid a setting of spring flowers at the Church of the Annunciation, a wedding of great local interest was solemnized Friday morning when Miss Donalda Patricia Letourneau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Letourneau of Prince Rupert, became the bride of Mr. Alan B. Currie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Currie sr., also of this city. Father J. I. McMahon heard the marriage vows while Mr. John Currie jr. was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white ballerina-length gown, with lace bodice and a billowing nylon tulle skirt featuring a wide scalloped peplum and lily-point sleeves. She wore an illusion finger-tip veil, a lace cap adorned with seed pearls and lily-of-the-valley and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Robert Currie, as matron of honor and sister-in-law of the bride, wore a net over taffeta coral gown of ballerina length and carried blue carnations while other bridal attendants, Miss Bea Dunans, Mrs. Fred Simpson and Miss Janet Cloutier wore gowns of mauve, pale green and pink and carried yellow, pink and fuchsia carnations.

Flower girl Lyn Schork, was gowned in net over taffeta with matching bonnet and she carried a nosegay of yellow carnations.

Mr. Robert Currie was best man, while ushers were Mr. Derrick Letourneau, Mr. John LaPorte and Mr. Fred Simonsen.

In the evening a reception was held in the Canadian Legion auditorium where the bride's mother wore a grey moire-taffeta afternoon gown, pink accessories and corsage while the groom's mother chose a crepe gown in rust-brown, yellow accessories and matching corsage.

A three-tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, centred the bridal table and was flanked by spring flowers.

Mr. Vernon Scherk, proposed the toast to the bride and Mr. Robert Currie the toast to the bride's attendants.

A host of congratulatory telegrams were read by Mr. George Mitchell.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in Vancouver and Seattle and for going away the bride wore a blue suit, white accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Currie will take up residence at 518 Bowser Street.

CITY BUSINESS BLOCK SOLD LOCALLY FOR $60,000

The business block at the corner of Third Avenue and Fifth Street has been sold to local investors at a price of $60,000, Frank Wilson, of H. G. Helgerson, Ltd., announced today.

Purchasers of the buildings which were erected in 1939 by Dybhaben and Hanson, are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Strand, 136 Fifth Avenue West.

Businesses occupying the building are Watts and Nicker-son, Sweet Sixteen Ltd. and the Canadian National Telegraph and ticket office.

Mr. Wilson acted on behalf of the purchasers and the Toronto General Trusts Corporation of Vancouver for the estate of Dybhaben and Hanson Ltd.

Woman In U.S. Expecting To Deliver Own Child Again

TITUSVILLE, Fla., Feb. 2 — Mrs. Ellerbe W. Carter expects her eighth baby in April. As usual, she plans to deliver it herself.

Now past 40, she has brought five of her children into the world unattended. Her oldest child is 17. Her youngest is 2.

Briefly, Mrs. Carter's system consists of taking "a few whisky highballs" to relax in having her baby. Then she resumes her housework. Mrs. Carter says she enjoys "the rapture of childbirth as nature intended it."

"There is no agony, no screaming pain. There is about a half a minute of acute discomfort, but not nearly as bad as having a tooth pulled."

Her husband, 71, a retired army general, is a member of the city council and president of the Titusville Lions Club. He also heads a realty company.

RELAX AND WAIT

When she is aware that the birth of a child is due, Mrs. Carter mixes a few highballs and goes into a bedroom alone to relax and wait. When the child is born she gets up instantly, ties the cord, bathes the baby, shows the newcomer to its brothers and sisters and her husband.

Neely Moore, superintendent of the exploration office and his wife Betty, and two children, John and Judy, leave for Port Arthur by train on April 2.

ANCIENT COOKS

A baked mud house, with one oven, discovered at Jarcho in northern Iraq, is estimated to date from 4,750 B.C.

Mrs. Carter says it is very important to get up instantly and stay up so that the organs can immediately go back into place."
