TORONTO # -- Only about 17 of the 188 thoroughbreds originally nominated will run for the Queen's 50 guineas in Canada's richest stake race Saturday.

Another two or three probably will be scratched before the herses go to the post in the $20,-1 000--added Queen's Plate classic at Woodbine racetrack.

Of the field left for the 96th running of the plate, only five or six are considered in contention. The others, experts say, probably will go along just for the exercise and with the hope

Now the only problem was to avoid the loss of two trump tricks and the correct play at trick two was the ace of spades

Suppose, instead, that you lead spade and finesse the queen, losing to the king. You will still have a guess as to whether to take another finesse against the Mr. Champion Mr. Abel tack or to play for the drop of that card. If you decide to take AK a second fine, e there is the awful possibility that you will lose two trump, tricks to the hing-jack doubleton on your left. You might have some trouble explaining that to your partner.
