LONDON O- - British boxing officials said today they are "mystified" by a Toronto report that the British Empire heavy. weight boxing title is vacant.

"This is quite incorrect," said Teddy Waltham, general secretary of the British Boxing Board of Control and secretary of the British Commonwealth and Empire boxing championships committee. "The present titleholder is Don Cockell of London and as far as we know he has no intention of retiring."

Waltham said neither the Empire committee nor the British board of control would recognize a January 9 Toronto fight between James J. Parker of Barrie, Ont., and South African Johnny Arthur as a title match, Mery McKenzie, of the Ontario Athletic Commission was quoted Wednesday as saying the bout had been sanctioned as a title match by the Canadian Boxing Federation.

Cockell successfully defended his title against Arthur in South Africa in January, 1954. He is scheduled to make another title defence next April against Jack Gardner of Market
