PATTERN M 291
by Ginny Stutzen

PROMINENT DESIGNER

Coming from Ginny Stutzen, the word "shirtdress" gets some bold new definitions! The soft blousing is big fashion news all around — see how it cleverly nips in the waist, emphasizes the sleek, smooth skirt. This talented American designer believes in young, freedom-loving lines; therefore, a Paris-conscious pattern that's cut for step-in comfort too. You're sure to want a version in fine wool; perhaps, two — choosing winter-cotton, textured atin, or a brilliantly colored silk with flashing jewel button's that's smart enough for evening. If you've never owned a Ginny Stutzen Original, you have this new treat in flattery just awaiting your sewing need! Pattern M291 is available in Misses' Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 requires 2½ yards 54-inch fabric. Send Fifty Cents (in coins) for Pattern M291 to Prince Rupert Daily News, Pattern Department, 66 Front Street West, Toronto, Ontario. Pourers For Tea Tomorrow Listed by Hospital Auxiliary

Four city women will preside at the tea cups, in a setting of witches, hobgoblins and black cats tomorrow afternoon when the Women's auxiliary to the Prince Rupert General hospital stages its annual Hallowe'en tea.

The affair starts at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. H. Weldon Steel, above the Bank of Montreal, Third Avenue West.

Asked to pour are Mrs. L. M. Greene, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. H. A. Breen and Mrs. C. G. Ham.

Mrs. Kenneth Robertson is convener. A bake table, sale of WA Totem cook books, plus four special prizes will be featured. A Christmas hamper containing festive fruit and nuts will be a special prize.

Hostess Mrs. Steel will be assisted in receiving by WA president Mrs. Richard Ayres.

Proceeds from this year's annual tea will go toward the purchase of a new $1,270 anaesthetic machine for the hospital.

City council police and licensing committee will look into the school crossing situation in the vicinity of Conduit school and also consider the establishment of school zones and signs outside Roosevelt Park school.

A year later she and her husband moved to the Native village of Kitselas where Mr. Bevan preached until his death in 1937.

She died at the home of her daughter, Flora Bevan, in Kitselas after an illness of some 20 years.

Funeral services were conducted by Salvation Army Lieut. Captain of Kitselas. Funeral arrangements were in the hands of MacKenzie's Funeral Home, Terrace.

Hymns sung were "Shall We Gather at the River," "Will You Meet Me at the Fountain," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "I Have a Home." A trio composed of Miss Bevan, Mrs. Chris Nelson and Albert Young sang "Shall We Meet With the Loved and the Lost at the Graveside." Organist was Miss Flora Bolton. Pallbearers were Herbert Spalding, Percy Kennedy, Gunnar Edlund, Bruce Stegner, Rufas MacDavies and Gary Wright.

Mrs. Bevan is survived by three grandchildren, one brother James Gray of Prince Rupert and a sister, Mrs. Alice Green of Port Simpson.

In the current year Canadian families will pay in taxation an average of $270 to their municipal governments, $400 to their provincial governments and $1,360 to the federal government.
