the devestation 10 per cent could spring to arms quickly.

The government recognizes In both cases the reason for that the problem in thermonuc-lack of preparation is that "polear warfare would be survival litical leaders won't face up to of the nation. Gen. Simonds the problem of organizing na-Mid and that everyone not in tional manpower." military service must take part He said he could see no possirescue, rehabilitation and re-bility of actual peace between construction. But the govern-communism and democracy "exment has not taken adequate cept in terms of an armed truce." stem to ensure that the people The west today is in a worse

The other concept is that of said. Who balanced or graduated de- NO CO-EXISTENCE terrent being able to deal with involved in all-out war.

we have to be so organized Communist powers, except in and trained that we can spring terms of an armed truce. to arms quickly."

Girls For Spring and Summer

Leather Jackets. Peddle Pushers.... Jeans ... Slacks

I WALLACE'S

(Continued from Page One) said, that Canada has not taken siens to enable its people to

LACK OF PREPARATION

will be ready for this type of de-position than before the "summit" conference at Geneva, he

"There is really no possibility small conflicts without becoming of peaceful co-existence between the western democracies and the

"However, I do not think war It is obvious, Gen. Simonds is inevitable, but I am convinced this change of the Communist regime to a more moderate way of thinking is only going to come about over a very long period of time and change can come only General Simonds said.

Mrs. W. D. Smith, president who had to attend a city council WINNIPEG () — While resi-three or four feet deep.

that if there were not an increase dike breaks today in preparation in position Monday to mend the years ago and had only picked the Red river appeared remote. 10 days. a un slightly since.

brought a new member the club's washed out several dikes in west- area. difficulties would be solved. He ern Manitoba Monday. difficulties would be solved he crn Manitoba wonday.

[expressed the hope that member- Workers were to start repairs Assiniboine with one crest start- Ben-Gurion. | Uses Rifle | ship would increase in the fall, today on one of the river's worst Assiniboine, with one crest startbers that Mrs. T. Norton Youngs lar Point on the north side of the was chairman of the nominating river. committee for the election of officers at the annual meeting next teers for three afternoons and long, with water pouring through three evenings to man the Canadian Institute of the Blind display at the Civic Centre Potpourri Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

> LINDSAY'S Cartage & Storage Established 1910

HOULEHOLD GOODS IMOVING - PACKING -CRATING -- STORAGE Lift Van Service

Agents: Allied Van Lines Ltd. Phones Wharf 4331 Office 5016

A LE WELROSE

FINE FAMOUS CHINESE DISHES SERVED TO PERFECTION

3329

For Orders to Take Out

OUR AIM IS TO

MODERNIZE COMPLETELY!

WE HAVE FOR SALE AT, ALL TIMES ANY AND ALL UNITS IN OUR FLEET

THE PRICES ARE AT OUR FULLY DEPRECIATED BOOK VALUE --- AS IS --- WHERE IS

* WHITES * FORDS

* VOLKSWAGENS

* FEDERALS

Transportation Co. Ltd.

Government Dock -- Prince Rupert, B.C.

THREE SETS OF TWINS-Mr. and Mrs. Bern and Hoy of Sudbury, Ont., have their hands full posing their nine children—six of them twin i—for this family picture. Left to right: (front row) Martin and Mariella, 2½ months held by Mrs. Hoy: Helen and Peter, 6; Suzanne and Michelle, 17 months held by Mr. Hoy; and Pauline, 4. Standing are Teresa, 5, (left) and Christine, 3. (CP Photo).

west of Brandon. 🥳 😗

DIE ONE BY ONE

run-off.

time and change can come only in terms of a palace revolution." Assimbolne Residents Work; General Simonds said. and thanked by Eugene Bartlett, Winnipeg Starts To Relax vice-president substituting for dents along the swollen Assini- A power shovel, heavy machin-Mr. Bartlett told those present bolne river continued to repair ery, sandbags and piles were put Prairie Farm Rehabilitation "We are presently only holding Act officials combined with resi- one major break, and several. The truce supervision head-covered with the queen. liardly paying our own way and 40 miles west of here, to fix dike been repaired. will have trouble getting speak- breaks before expected major crests arrive from eastern Sas-dropped almost three feet from prevent further ligstilities. He said that if every member katchewan. The Assiniboine last week's peak in the flooded

Mr. Bartlett reminded mem- washouts, two miles east of Pop- ing to take effect Monday at Reeve Alec Hamelin of girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. tentially serious flood threat. G. A. Hunter of Dallas late Monday night and early today.

Francois Xavier municipality estimated the break was 120 feet WON'T BE WASTED

the four baby girls "looking good boine "are filled with water," | Egyptian sources said the blg 1956 for their size." The first, weigh- mayor Henderson said. "It is my remaining question in the ing three pounds, was born at opinion that there will be high Israeli-Arab dispute was Syria's 11:44 p.m. the second, weighing water from five weeks to two willingness to give an unconditwo nounds 11½ ounces' was months and if it keeps flooding, Honal cease-fire pledge Syria born three minutes later; the seeding will be very late." third, three pounds three ounces. 110 minutes later; the fourth, born at 12:05 a.m. was not weighed immediately. All were placed in incubators, Mrs. Hunter, 25, was reported in Igood condition.

More than a little amazed at becoming the father of four girls at one time, Hunter, 42, an aircraft worker, said he thought he would take today off. "We were told it would be and a fosterdaughter.

veren't looking for four. I'm; pretty excited."

Hunter admitted that he and his wife had not yet chosen, or i even considered any numes for the newcomers. The Hunters have one other child — also a girl—14 months old.

TRAIN SERVICE

THE PRAIRIES

LEASTERN CANADA

8:00 p.m. Daily Except Sunday Convenient Main Line connect tions at Jasper for points East and West.

Daily train service to Kitimut via Terrace

ARRIVE KITIMAT 12:30 p.m. RETURN LIBAVE KITIMAT 5:00 p.m.]

ARRIVE PR. RUPERT 10:20 p.m. All Times

Pacific Standard For Further Information Please, See, Call, or Write: K. L. ROBERTSON

[General Agent, Passenger Dept.) 528 Third Avenue W. Phone 4116; M Prince Rupert.

UN Posts Mooted For Border

JERUSALEM IN-The United had to be set now-before Mr. in membership the Prince Rupert for further crests, the Greater break. Flood officials said, that Nations truce organization to-Abel regained the lead. Canadian Club would have to Winnipeg flood-forecasting com- all breaks will have to be filled day announced plans to bolster There was only one card l disband. Membership, he said, mittee abandoned almost all its and strengthened before the next the Israeli-Egyptian cease-fire could lead at this point which had began falling off about two operations as flood danger from crest arrives, expected in about with UN observer posts and mo- would accomplish the set. That Note that the lead of the king On the south side of the river, porder.

blle patrols along the tense Gaza card was the ten of diamonds.

He led it of course and Mr. Abel.

our own," Mr. Bartlett said, "arc dents of the Poplar Point area, smaller washouts have already quarters said Israel and Egypt The acc won and a agreed to the new border ar-diamond return put Mr. Masters ally stop the suit. If the deuce Level of the Assiniboine has rangements in a new attempt to in again with the king. He now

|Secretary-General Dag Ham-Officials said the prospect was marskjold went into a new meet- Scolded Boy

Hammarskjold and Ben-Gurion met to thresh out additional On Critics details of the practical border arrangements to guarantee the Israeli-Egyptian cease-fire.

The UN diplomat expects to Above Kamsack in éastern Sas-leave for Rome Wednesday afterkatchewan, substantial amounts noon. There he will prepare his of snow were reported in the final report to the UN Security headwaters, of the Assiniboine. Council. Meanwhile, Jordan replied to

Officials said continued cool, dry weather would help slow the Hammarskjold's proposals for a | cease-fire between that country | Mayor H. L. Henderson of Por- and Israel. Premier Samir Rifal tage la Prairie, chairman of the said the reply was "harmonfous" Assiniboine river control organ-|vitn the attitud of the other ization, made a 700-mile aerial Arab states.

tour of the river valley. He said An official source in the Jor-DALLAS, Tex. (4)—Quadruplet the Assiniboine still holds a po-danian capital emphasized that neither Jordan nor Israel's other There was flooding: in the Arab neighbors would tolerate Hospital attendants reported streams flowing into the Assini-the Jordan river for irrigation. had taken the lead in denouncing Israeli plans to divert the Jordan, which flows through both Syria and Israel and Syr-1. BRADY, Tex. 49 - One by one, ian sources said Hammar kield three members of a San Angelo, had been asked to obtain an Tex., family were swept away Israeli pledge not to divert the late Sunday night when a sud- river den flood on the San Saba river lengulfed their stalled car. W.S. h Hale carried one daughter to Monday night said safety, then was carried away instole flowers from a funeral himself in the muddy water as wreath hanging on a door and he tried futilely to save his wife gave them to girls in a nearby 'restaurant.'' officially notified his party leader he will not seek re-election in the next provincial election. He is the third CCF MLA to announce his retirement.

TO ANNOUNCE RETIREMENT VICTORIA (P--William Moore, CCF MLA for Comox, has

Robert Strachan, new party leader, made the disclosure

No reason was given for the withdrawal of Mr. Moore, but it is believed he disagreed with many of the party's policies,

Two other CCF members, Rupert Haggen, of Grand Forks-Greenwood, and Vincent Segur, of Revelstoke, will also deeline to run in the next election,

A Pink Cloud Resting on a Tree Trunk Summer-Blooming SMOKE BIG WELL-BRANCHED

2 - 1-FOOT TREES

Postage puld on prepaid orders. G.O.D 's welcome. Complete Planting Instructions enclosed. Special Frankplancing Persilage TARR HOLD that gets all trees of to a fast start, sent little with your order. If, on delivery, not com• plotely autisfied, roturn for your

TREE $2.00

(2 for $3.50) (4 for $6.00) When the other Howering trees on your street have quit blooming, this breathtaking Smoke Tree bursts forth. in all Its plory. Clorgeous panieles are to deman, you can't see the branches! aven from ten teet away, Looks like one huge putt of pink smoke. And i stuys in bloom for weeks and weeks. So benutiful, people will come for ! blocks around to admire it. It turns is a dazziing yellow in Pull. Magnificent whom planted to pairs. Thrives in rull sun or semi-shide, Grows in al. l. most any soft. Mature height 10 to \ 14 feat, Our stock is the heat we've !. ever had, Heavy-rooted and wellbranched, Quantities of this flue quality stock are low, so please order ;

Paintly Cardens Sursery, Dept. 10P. 1944 Dufferin Street, Poronto 4, Ont.

BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Easy-To-Remember Play Helps Defeat Contracts

In making the killing defensive play on this hand, Mr. Masters followed a principle which many players do not seem to know. Not that there is anything intricate about it. In fact, it is easy to remember and it will help you to defeat a lot of otherwise makeable

South dealer

WEST

(Mrs. Keen)

The bidding:

Mr. Abel's eight-six.

INOT AS GOOD

♥.J 9 6 5 2 ♥ 8 3

SOUTH

(Mr. Abel)

A A K J

▼ A Q 10

♦ QS64

♣ J 9 8

South West North East

Is led first, Mr. Abel would duck and it would take the jack to Mrs. Keen would return the now, on the lead of the 10, Mr.

Spring is Here

See Us Now for Your

Fertilizers • Pet Supplies

PRINCE RUPERT

FLORISTS

Seeds

win over dunimy's nine.

ting up the queen.

• Bulbs

300 3rd Ave. W.

Both sides vulnerable

NORTH

(Mr. Champion)

* A Q 10 5 4

EAST

♦ K 10 2

🦀 K 7 3

Mrs. Keen opened the five of hearts, the four went on from dummy and Mr. Masters played the eight. Mr. Abel false-carded with the ace, fooling nobody at all. Mr. Masters knew that if it took the ace to beat his eight, then his partner must have |queen, jack and 10. But with| that holding she would have led

As for Mrs. Keen, she knew that the queen was in the closed hand because if Mr. Masters, had it, he would have played it instead of the lowly eight. NOW IS THE TIME

At trick two Mr. Abel led the eight of clubs and let it go. Mr. Masters won with the king and it was clear to him that if the | contract could be set at all, it |

He led it, of course, and Mr. Abel three would not have done as small first, Mr. Abel's eight would fin-led the deuce of the suit and Mrs.

MILFORD, Pa. (AP)-A 13- when leading up to weakness in year-old boy who "got a little dummy, it is usually best to lead mad" when a man and his the lowest card you have which wife scolded him for target- is higher than dummy's highest shooting near their home card in the suit. Monday, turned his rifle on | ----them, fatally wounding the husband and critically wounding the wife.

Police said James Van Why readily admitted the shooting. Edward W. Ebele, 48, died of head wounds from .22calibre bullets. His wife, Margaret, 45, is in critical condition, also shot in Jewels worth £100,000 headwaters and the valleys of any Israeli's attempt to divert loaned for one London designer's showing of spring fashions in

Today to Wednesday

7 -- 9 p.m.

RADIANTLY HAPPY, 18-yearold Amabile Battistello, formerly blind, steps into a world of light after a corneal transplant and is able to read as she leaves a clinic here. The girl "inherited" her priceless gift of sight from the late Italian priest, Don Carlo Gnocchi, who willed his eyes.

The Blonde Who

to the blind. (Mr. Masters) The SAT. EVE. POST's ▲ 10 8 7 5 2 Thrill-Swept Story of Soupbowl MacLish ... and Torpedoed Him! NT Pass 3 NT All Pass Keen had the jack-seven over of the dence of diamonds at trick it That"HIGH and well. On the lead of the king Tames That "RIOT in five to her partner's king. But Abel could duck and Mrs. Keen could not overtake without set-!

In similar situations, then,

WITH ALVY MOORE and Those Even-Loring FIGHTENG XEN & S. U.S. NAYY AN ALLIED ARTISTS PICTURE

ADDED 2nd FEATURE

Today To Wednesday 7 pm. and 8:20

CAPITOL

TOTEM

YOUR CHOICE OF ONE PAIR OF SLACKS UP TO $15.00

EVERY PURCHASE OF A

SPORTS COAT

YOU SAVE UP TO $15.00

8 WILLIAMS

507 3rd Wost

Phone 3112