

PRE-CHRISTMAS EVENT

"Good Citizen" To Open Moose Women's Bazaar

Prince Rupert's "Good Citizen of the Year" Mrs. T. Boulter will officially open the Women of the Moose's annual Christmas bazaar and tea in the Moose Temple tomorrow at 2 p.m.

General convener for the affair to last until 5 p.m. is WOTM junior graduate regent Mrs. Kenneth Hardy.

Senior regent Mrs. H. L. Phipps will receive the public in the temple, lavishly decorated in a Yuletide setting.

Asked to pour are Mrs. Joe Edsdale, regent of Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire Queen Mary chapter; Mrs. W. N. Poole, vice-president of the Prince Rupert chapter of the Registered Nurses' association; Mrs. Robert Montgomery, president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion Branch No. 27 and Mrs. Hugh Waller, president of the Prince Rupert Kinette's club.

Cocktail and kitchen aprons in many styles and gay colors of various materials will highlight the sewing and knitting stall, featuring embroidered table cloths and pillow cases and knitting and crocheted articles.

There will be home-cooking delicatessen, candy and white elephant stalls.

A large array of assorted towels will be raffled by the Moosehaven committee and a grocery hamper will be convened by the Mooseheart Alumni.

The Child Care Committee will provide a baby sitting pool for toddlers while a fish pond will be in operation for the older children.

The tea room, convened by the Ritual committee will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Martin.

Hm! Wonder why

Mrs. Carlson Honored By Friends

Mrs. A. L. Bell was hostess to a farewell party last night when friends gathered at her home on Fourth Avenue East, in honor of Mrs. A. E. Carlson.

Mrs. Carlson leaves in the near future for Edmonton where she will join Mr. Carlson who left last month to take up his new appointment as roadmaster with the Canadian National Railways.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson's daughter Anna, Grade 12 student at Booth Memorial High School will join her parents in Edmonton upon completion of the school year while son Harold will continue to work in Kitimat and son James will complete his second year at the University of British Columbia.

On behalf of the guests attending the farewell party, Mrs. Clinton Halliday presented Mrs. Carlson with a copper tray.

A showing of films and refreshments concluded the affair.

Wishing Mrs. Carlson every future success and happiness were Mrs. Earl Gordon, Mrs. W. A. Antilla, Mrs. Edwin Lindseth, Mrs. Albert Lindseth, Mrs. M. B. Lemon, Mrs. R. G. Farmer, Mrs. A. Donald Ritchie, Mrs. Peter Marks, Mrs. T. A. Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Oggilvie and Mrs. Ted Lewis.
