Paint-Up Centre Lobby

The erstwhile gloomy-looking lobby of Prince Rupert's Civic Centre was given a new look yesterday when a group of enthusiastic amateur brush-wielders tackled a paint job, brightening up the large hall.

Led by Fred Jones, centre general secretary, and Rollie Miles, crafts director, the volunteer painters smoothed on first coats of green and cream, even tackling the high ceiling of the lobby, with brightening results.

Norton Youngs of the Centre board of directors, supervised the project, tackled by Jim Cummings, Bob Hill, Robin Bird. Buddy Taft and the Harold Thomas family, with young Shirley, Louise and Joyce helping their mum and dad, Shirley, 7, doing some painting, while Louise, 5, looked after Joyce, 2. Giving the workers a welcome break was Mrs. A. L. Bell, who arrived mid-afternoon with a supply of cookies and served tea to the crew.

BIDS TOO HIGH

The paint gang offered their assistance when contractors' bids on the paint job proved too high. Borrowing a mobile scaffolding from HMCS Chatham, they went to work, starting in the morning and completing the first coat in the early evening.

Mr. Miles, reporting on the project today, said that another brightening feature planned for the lobby, was display of work by local artists. The Art Club has been asked to include the Centre in its "off-the-sidewalk" show, scheduled to start Saturday, and also has agreed to hang several paintings in the lobby, changing them from time to time throughout the year.

The "Marmorballor" . . . where the Seagram Collection was shown.

They're talking about Canada the world over

This sketch by the prominent Swedish artist, Gunnar Brusewitz, depicts Stockholm's "Marble Halls". It was here that the Seagram Collection of Paintings of Canadian Cities was visited by more than 31,000 Swedish citizens who came to see this colour-· ful Canadian exhibition.

Everywhere these paintings went ... north and south of the equator ... on both sides of the Atlantic ... they won new friends and favourable comment for Canada. In sixteen cities along a 30,000-mile international route through. 15 foreign lands, more than a quarter of a million people came to see these original canvases of 22 of our cities, and from them gain a new understanding of Canada and her remarkable achievements.

During its year abroad, the Seagram Collection of Paintings carned for Canada thousands of columns of newspaper reports, editorials, reviews and pictures; magazine articles; radio and television broadcusts; newsreet films-all commenting on these portrayals of our thrive ing cities, and all serving to make Canada talked about the world over.
