

ute Paid Immortal Robbie Presbyterian Burns Banquet

In Scotland's immortal Burns, was paid in the form of anecdotes and toasts, when Presbyterian church annual Robert Burns banquet.

A meal of traditional bubblylock (turkey, beer), grumpy pigtail tatties (potatoed neeps (turnips), peas w/ a wee bit kippers, pancakes and highlighted by more than 150 persons, works of the giftedised and recited.

The banquet, the tra- pagne was carried hall by Captain H. to the skirt of played by J. Robertson.

Mrs. Taylor then sang "Afton Waters."

TWO KINDS OF PEOPLE

Dr. E. A. Wright, pastor of First Presbyterian church, gave the toast to "Bonnie Scotland." "There are two kinds of people in the world, those that are Scottish and those that would like to be," he said, adding that it is the character of the people living in a country that make it great.