...dred Olson, vice-president; Mrs. Eleanor Bolsford, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ethel Georgeson, recording secretary, and Mrs. Alice van Ireland, recording secretary.

Directors named by the club were Mrs. Grant, Miss Marjorie Johansen, Mrs. Myrtle Lippett and Mrs. Mary Turner.

In his report as retiring president of the Credit Grantors Association, Norman Moorehouse pointed out that there was still a number of business concerns in the city which were not members of the organization but which could benefit from the services it has to offer. He remarked that it was the best insurance, available against bad debts. Membership of the association is now 87, he said.

Mr. Moorehouse paid tribute to the work of the Credit Women's Breakfast Club, and particularly to its retiring president, Mrs. Laurie.

In her report, Mrs. Laurie recalled that during the past year the Prince Rupert club had been given the achievement award at the international club conference in San Francisco for making the most progress of any club in its district organized during the past five years. The Prince Rupert organization, represented at the conference by Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Laurie, also won second prize for its scrapbook.

Among the Credit Women's Breakfast Club's fund-raising projects during the past year were a variety show, an Easter Dainties Sale and a rummage sale.

Both Mrs. Laurie and Mr. Moorehouse spoke of the success of the Retail Credit Education Week in creating interest among high-school students, and among the public as a whole. Mrs. Laurie recalled that the women's club had donated a $100 bursary to Miss Margaret Youngman at the high school to further her business training.

Speaking on the system of Canadian government, Mr. Applewhite traced the decline of the executive powers of the Crown to the point where the Governor-General can act only on the advice of the elected ministers. At the same time, he pointed out, the occasion might arise when the Queen's representative could be the "acc-in-the-hole" in laying the power to dismiss a Prime Minister who did not have the confidence of Parliament.

In conclusion he broached the idea that one day Canada might consider naming a member from a part of the Commonwealth other than the U.K. to be its governor-general.

Committee reports for the Credit Women's Breakfast Club were presented at the meeting by Christine Sauer, Margaret Johansen, Ethel Georgeson, Mary Turner, Mary Ballinger, Mildred Olson, John Mintenko, Ben Grant, Eleanor Bolsford, Alice van Ireland and Myrtle Lippett. The nominating committee's report was given by Myrtle Franklin.

Hallowe'en Masquerade Set For Catholic Youth Group

Arrangements for their Hallowe'en Masquerade featured business discussions at the last meeting of the Catholic Youth Organization of the Church of the Annunciation.

The masquerade is scheduled for the Annunciation School Hall October 27, with prizes planned for best costumes as well as for novelty dances. The members also planned to serve a buffet luncheon and stage a program including skits and other items.

Prior to the dance, eight members of the CYO will pay a Hallowe'en visit to Miller Bay Hospital, taking taffee apples, candy and peanuts to children in the hospital.

The meeting also approved purchase of a basketball for the junior school team, and introduced a new member, Jim Marshall of Prince Rupert, after which a discussion on "equal pay for women" and a social hour were held.

OORP Planning Bake Sale Here

Reports on a recent convention and arrangements for a forthcoming bake sale highlighted last night's meeting of the Order of the Royal Purple here.

The group named a committee to arrange the Hallowe'en Bake Sale with Mrs. Carmel Hill and Mrs. R. Currie as convener, assisted by Mrs. Robert Elliott, Miss Mildred Furness and Mrs. Mc Galloway.

Mrs. Hill reported on the supreme convention held this summer in Penticton, noting that a highlight of the sessions had been presentation to Grand Excelsior Buler Dixon of Toronto of checks for $5,505.84 for the Canadian Save the Children fund, a sum amounting to about 1,000 more than was raised in the previous year. Presentation was made by Supreme Honored Royal Lady Mabel Redman, on behalf of members throughout the dominion.

The session also saw a plan for better attendance at the next meeting, scheduled for Monday, October 25.

Visiting B.C. President Urges Jaycees, Others To Enter Public Speech Classes

Prince Rupert Jaycees and their citizens were urged to take advantage of proposed classes in public speaking, when L. J. "Flip" Filippelli of Trail, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in B.C., addressed the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber.

The provincial president, who arrived here yesterday in the course of a northern B.C. tour, attached much importance to the public speaking program carried out by Jaycees as one of their major projects across the country, saying that the ability to express oneself was important to everyone, not only from a speaker's platform but also in the everyday business world. The businessman must be able to express himself well to his staff, to other businessmen and in dealing with the public.

The local chamber has planned a public speaking course to be instructed by W. H. Hankinson, local radio station manager; but to date, there has not been sufficient interest shown by Jaycees and others, to get the class started. Persons interested were asked to contact Ken Wilmot, chairman of the organizing committee.

The visiting official also spoke on activities of Jaycees at various other points he had visited during his tour to date, and outlined the objectives of the Jaycee movement.

He also officiated at installation of officers of the local group, including: Jay Burns, president; Jerry Pettenuzzo, first vice-president; Roy Brown, second vice-president, and Jack Breen, director.

Last night's meeting also heard a report on a recent board of trade meeting at Ketchikan, attended by Rupert Jaycee Neely Moore, at which a resolution urging establishment of small airports throughout the northwest area had been adopted.

Jaycees also discussed plans for a weekly radio program on community activities, to be launched shortly, and also made preliminary plans for the annual Christmas light-up campaign.

Citizenship Council Sets Dates For Annual Meet, Social Evening

Plans for their annual meeting and a social evening, particularly for New Canadians, were discussed at last night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Citizenship Council.

The annual meeting, to feature election of officers and reports of committees on the past year's activities will be held November 8. The social is scheduled for later in November, and a committee to plan that event will be named at a council executive meeting this Friday.

Possibility of formation of Citizens' Forum discussion groups in Prince Rupert was considered with several members showing much interest. Members were asked to raise the point at meetings of their respective organizations, and report back to the next council meeting.

The group planned to catalogue and build up its supply of literature on citizenship, so that the material may be more readily available for reference purposes. The discussion of literature also brought a recommendation to the Prince Rupert Parent-Teacher Council that the B.C. Parent-Teacher Federation's new catalogue of good reading material, classified as to suitability for various age groups, be made available to local members.

The session also saw appointment of Mrs. J. F. Denning as secretary pro tem and members were urged to remind their respective organizations of the forthcoming Community Carol Sing at the Civic Centre in December.

Why an apple a day?

B.C. Apples, with their fresh crispness, juicy eating goodness and lively, exciting flavor, add color and attractiveness to every meal... wake-up, sleepy appetites. B.C. Apples are nearly one-seventh pure, quickly-used food energy... a quick and nutritious refresher when you're tired. And... become an average B.C. Apple supplies only 87 calories — they have a definite place in low-calorie diets.

Besides tasting so good, an apple eaten after a meal gives your gums stimulating, beneficial massage; helps clean your teeth, leaves your mouth sweet and clean. Make it a rule in your house to top off every meal with a crackling-good B.C. Apple.

B.C. Apples are as wholesome and nourishing as they are appetite-appealing. No matter what your age, apples can make a worthwhile contribution to your general well-being... help make life seem that much sunnier. Remember, an apple a day is Nature's way — be sure to eat at least one B.C. Apple each and every day!

APPLES are GOOD FOR YOU!

Apples have been eaten, and enjoyed, for many centuries — because people liked them and felt that apples were good for them. Sound reasoning, too — because today we know how important a place the apple can fill in our everyday diets.

The apple is one of Nature's most perfect "food packages". Inside its crisp, glossy skin... locked-in its tangy, taste-tempting flesh, are many of those things you need every day — in the form you like best!

B.C. Apples are a good dietary source of Vitamin C. They supply useful quantities of minerals... protoporphyrins (as many as any fruit) to help tone the digestive system and help your body get more benefit from important minerals and vitamins... roughage so urgently needed in today's soft-food diets.

NATURE'S "FOOD PACKAGE"

One medium B.C. Apple gives you these essentials you need every day...
