

The Daily News

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port — And Key to the Great Northwest

VOL. XLIV, No. 172.

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., MONDAY, JULY 25, 1955.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

"OP IT!" — From the expression on his face, Eric Conrad of Halifax doesn't think his third in a soap-box derby at Isenbüttel, Germany, rates all this "mush." He was top Canadian that entered the derby. His father, Sgt. Ed Conrad, is serving with the 1st Infantry Brigade in Germany. The girls are unidentified. (CP from National Defence)

Four Back Home To Implement Decisions Produced At Conference

JAN HARRISON
A.P.—The four big days began the second in their attempt to ease tension by negotiation.

days back home in their days started work on implement the direc-

the "summit" conference.

The Dr. Four leaders,

Geneva, professed

that their six-day

here had started them right road. Each also the importance of fol-

ders have much to do

a few weeks to prepare

BULLETIN

HONG KONG (Reuters) — The Communist New China news agency announced today that the United States and Communist China will hold a meeting at ambassador's level in Geneva Aug. 1.

Rain In Sight as Fires rage Unchecked in Ontario

TO 4 — Massive fires in southern Ontario's sunsets today, as fiercely 100 men fighting them
at an elephant."

100,000 acres of
pine, balsam, spruce
have been reduced
and stumps. At least were burning, 10% of control.

has been only negligible on the hot searching in the last month. Office department of land

say the fire menace
parallel in Ontario

the way it blazes in unchecked through for-
miles north of Blind
in from the rocky like Huron. It has an area of nearly 65,000

FOR WEEKS

firefighters have remained
out for many days;
weeks.

Macdonald, deputy of land and forests,
something like a ter-
away at an ele-
shutting at the edges

the world

</