At The Ball Park

By BOB RUDDERHAM

I don't know how the official score-keeper has it down in the record book but last night in the Pony League, I saw only one hit all evening and it was of the scratchy variety. Larry Toms the Elks pitcher had one squirt between first and second off the bat of Ken Dockendorf, the Gyro second sacker, to lose his bid for a no-hitter. Larry won the game however, and the no-hitter honors went to Bob Irvine who dropped the decision. There was some batted balls that might have been scored as hits against Irvine but I believe that the pitcher deserves the edge on these matters.

The game itself was a good one and it is too bad that a larger crowd wasn't there to appreciate it. It sure looked good after that fiasco on Dominion Day. While there were nine errors afield, there was not an earned run given up by either pitcher and Toms the winner, struck out 12 while only giving two walks. Irvine also was effective although giving up eight walks and striking out eight. Irvine also contributed six assists which for a pitcher is unusual.

I think that the sporting public could support this league a little better than it has in the past. The best way to support the game is, of course, to go up to the park and watch the games and give these young fellows some encouragement. They put more into the game than the senior players as a whole and ask little in return. They even supply their own foul ball chasers to help with the expenses and I was informed that very few balls are lost during the games. If you do get a chance to get to see a game or two, remember the faces; for they will be our seniors in a few short years. Also remember good attendances tend to improve the caliber of ball whether it is sandlot or major league so let's go out and get ourselves some good ball players.

RCMP Shade Army, Navy In Error-Filled Game

In a game of almost equal runs and identical errors RCMP last night shaded Army and Navy 9-8 in a Prince Rupert Senior Men's Softball league game at Gyro Park.

To reverse the score the police squad committed eight errors and the armed services combined to boot nine plays.

Stu Taylor held down the Army-Navy nine to three long singles but he gave up 11 free passes which combined with nine balls that got past RCMP catcher Walnwright contributed to the high score for Army and Navy. Taylor fanned 11.

Leggett for the A & N boys gave up eight hits, walked five, struck out one.

Army and Navy hit the score sheet first with two runs in the first inning on bases on balls and errors. Walks, a wild pitch and a single by Shaw gave the services another in the second and a walk, a steal and an error gave them their fourth run in the third. Walks, steals and errors put two more on the scoreboard for Army and Navy in the fourth while they maintained their lead with another

Toms Scores 7th Straight As Elks Continue Unbeaten

In a tight, well-played Pony League baseball fixture at Gyros in his seven inning share Roosevelt Park last night the and walked three. Irvine fanned eight but gave up seven free passes.

Winner Toms struck out 1. For Elks' pitcher Larry Toms it was his seventh victory in a row with no losses.

However, it was no easy win as the score was tied 1-1 from the first inning to the fifth when Elks catcher Ray Windle collected the only safety given up by Gyro hurler Rob Irvine to drive in Dave Allen and later come in himself on an error.

Toms gave up two hits, one in the sixth to Gyro receiver Bill Langthorne which came to naught and another to Ken Dockendorf in the seventh which turned into a run. The late Gyro rally fizzled out.
