Aid Volunteered by PTA For Festival, Potpourri

Members attending the regular meeting of the Conrad Street School Parent-Teacher association Tuesday night, spontaneously volunteered to assist in two local events, the Prince Rupert and District Music Festival, April 25, 26 and 27 and the Civic Centre Potpourri, May 3, 4 and 5.

Mrs. Victor Duplisse and Mrs. G. P. Patzold volunteered to assist in the Potpourri while 10 members offered to help the Prince Rupert Music and Drama association in its forthcoming festival.

Delegate to the Prince Rupert Canadian Citizenship council, Mrs. Frederick Hill, reported that the council is planning a folk festival in May and new Canadians in Terrace and Kitimat are being urged to enter.

The meeting chaired by president Marcel Girardet, voted to donate $100 to the Parent-Teacher council bursary fund.

A donation of $100 was made to the school to start a film library.

Guest speaker Mrs. James Pinniger, president of the Borden Street school PTA, as Prince Rupert delegate to the B.C. Parent-Teacher convention held during Easter week in Kamloops, spoke on the convention theme "Spotlight on Objectives."

Donald MacDonald's class room won the attendance pennant.

Bridge Series Raises Funds For Bursary

The sum of $100 has been raised for the Prince Rupert Soroptimist International annual high school bursary, which will be given the most deserving student completing high school in June, bursary chairman Miss Norma Irving, Monday night told members at its regular meeting.

Miss Irving said that the money was realized through the recently concluded and successful "Merry-Go-Round" bridge series.

At the meeting held at the home of vice-president Mrs. William Gordon, it was decided to enter a candy stall in the Civic Centre Potpourri, May 4.

Member Mrs. Arnold Bushaw was given a farewell gift. Mr. and Mrs. Bushaw and daughter are leaving the city shortly to take up residence in the lower mainland.

Moose Groups Plan Bazaar

Plans to purchase a rug for the altar of the Moose Temple were made and bazaar plans were completed Tuesday night when the publicity and library committees of the Women of the Moose held their regular meetings.

At the publicity committee meeting, chaired by Miss Betty Martin and held at the home of Mrs. Richard Giske, members decided to hold a grocery hamper raffle in order to purchase a new rug for the altar of the temple.

Following the business at hand, games were played with Mrs. Eric Martin winning the prize. Six members and two guests attended the regular session.

Final plans were made for WOTM bazaar, May 17, when the library committee met at the home of Mrs. Manuel Heise with Miss Sylvia Johnson presiding.

Games of whist followed the business meeting with Mrs. A. S. Hamilton winning first prize and Mrs. Carl Matson taking the consolation prize. Eleven members were in attendance.
