With the ace or the staff, Lino Donoso, in hospital, and Fred Stroble recently optioned, the Star hurlers apparently feel it necessary to go the route in every game. No relief was necessary Tuesday night as Mel Queen and Roger Bowman tossed a pair of five-hitters. The Stars won the opening game against the Seals, 5-2, and the windup, 1-0. IN RARE FORM

Bobby Spicer, the little Los Angeles pitcher who throws just about every pitch in the book, was in rare form as he held Oakland to five hits and scored his third shutout of the season. The Angels won, 3-0.

Rain washed out two games, Sacramento at Portland and San Diego at Scattle. There will be a double bill Wednesday night in

Public Apology Made by Stanky

ST. LOUIS (4)-Eddie Stanky, under suspension and a fine for his action in a forfeited National League ball game Sunday, has bounced back with a public apology and a promise to reform.
