

Frst. D. Gilligan Wed Marjorie Ann Way

Prince Rupert and Winnipeg families were in marriage last Tuesday morning when Miss Marjorie Ann Way, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Way, 310 Seventh Avenue West, became the bride of Constable Desmond James Gilligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilligan of Winnipeg, Manitoba in candlelight ceremony at the church of the Annunciation with Father O. P. Mohan officiating.

sets of tulips made an attractive setting for the bride. In marriage by her father, she wore a ballerina-length gown of ice-blue nylon net over satin and matching lace jacket. Her ice-blue shoulder-length veil was held by a white flowered tiara and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Bridesmaid was Miss Beth Astorin who wore a pale yellow nylon marquisette gown, matching headress and she carried a bouquet of mixed spring flowers.

In full dress uniforms were RCMP Constable Bernard Massine, best man, and Constables Owen Young and Ray Cunningham, ushers. Father H. E. Tunney was the organist.

At a wedding reception following in the Chief's and Petty Officers Mess, HMCS Chatham, the bride's mother in receiving the guests, chose a navy blue afternoon dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. T. A. Stewart, receiving the guests in place of the groom's mother who was unable to attend, wore a two-piece grey silk cocktail gown and white accessories.

Mr. Norman Bellis proposed the toast to the bride and Staff Sgt. T. A. Stewart, acting as master of ceremonies, read six congratulatory telegrams from relatives and friends.

The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a glass containing pink rosebuds and wreathed in a bed of rosebuds centred the bridal table and was flanked by white tapers.

Serving refreshments were Mrs. Allen Sheppard, Miss Margaret Johansen, Miss Jean Sharpe, Miss Pat Hill, Miss Robert Paul, Miss Joanne Way, Miss Marie Hiltz and Miss Frances Olson.

Out of town guests were Mrs. William Tippett of Port Alberni, aunt of the bride; and Constable Cunningham, Constable Young and Mr. John Hutton of Terrace.

The newlyweds left the city Sunday night on the Union Steamship Camosun for Nanaimo where Constable Gilligan has been stationed.

FLOWERS AT HAND — Delightful on a fresh spring day are these pastel pink leather gloves, the wrists garlanded with matching pink sweetheart roses. This new kidskin bitfle, available in various fruit and flower colors with matching pearl-like button closing, is a smart "try it yourself" accessory. The flower sprigs are easily sewn on and be selected to match those on your new hat.

Local Firms To Observe Credit Education Week

Observation of National Credit Education Week across Canada and the United States from April 24 to April 30 brought today an outline of the aims of the Prince Rupert Retail Credit Grantors Association from President Ralph Hood.

The association, which is sponsoring the local campaign, is composed of 60 local and district merchants and was organized in May, 1950.

"Our objectives," Mr. Hood said, "are to attain a closer relationship among merchants for their mutual protection in extension of credit, to educate the public to the necessity of paying accounts promptly and to establish and operate one central information bureau known as the Credit Bureau of Prince Rupert.

A concert enjoyed by more than 150 Air Cadets, Sea Cadets and Wrenettes yesterday afternoon at the Canadian Legion Auditorium, completed the engagements of the Royal Canadian Air Force band from Edmonton.

The 39-piece band under the direction of Flight Lieutenant Leo Corcoran, leaves on tonight's Canadian National Railways train for Prince George where the band will play a present and concert and play for a dance tomorrow night.

Saturday night more than 500 persons 250 couples danced to the music of the RCAF 12-piece band at the Tri-Servicemen's ball in the HMCS Chatham drill hall.

A cold plate supper was served during the dance by the Women's Auxiliary to the Air Cadet sponsoring committee, under the direction of Mrs. C. D. Bruce, president.
