By JOCELYN BOLTON The Museum has been busy again lately, many people registering and among them quite 1 few of our local people who we are happy to welcome. We have had a number of Terrace, Burns Lake, Telkwa and Smithers guests also.

Miss Ray Dorien, the English authoress, was one of our most interested visitors. She spent the whole afternoon in the Museum gathering data for her travel book and we enjoyed a cup of tea together. Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Sturgis of New York also visited us. Mr. Sturgis is the president of the First National Bank, New York.

F. J. Leduc of Ottawa came in and enjoyed our Indian exhibit. He told us he was a friend of Dr. Marius Barbeau and he felt that the Indians of this coast during the early days were more advanced than their eastern brothers. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. B. Boulton introduced us to Miss Boulton who is visiting them. She was a charming lady and seemed to enjoy our displays, especially the forestry one which Mr. Boulton is so well informed. Mrs. R. A. Schulze of Chicago was delighted with our exhibits by the House of Swansdown, and sent a copy of "Soogwilis" to her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Greaves of Vancouver were also delighted with Prince Rupert and seemed to be enjoying themselves so much and said they were so comfortable at the Rupert Hotel, enjoyed Club 27 and "Blithe Spirit."

Mrs. Marion E. Seaton of North Central Muesum in Wenatchee, Washington, and I had a great Fourth Avenue East, have reold chat about Museums. She told me about her job and invited me to visit them in the future which I hope I am able to Ontario and en route home were as just about to land?" and today people in do.
