Heinsite Always Knows the Answers-After

Everybody who plays a lot of bridge knows Mr. Weaters Heinsite. To him, there is not such a thing as a guess, He always knows just how a hand should have been played. It is significant that he always makes this knowledge public after a hand has been played.

CANADA'S WEEKLY EDITORS CONVERGING ON VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER-Hundreds of editors from across Canada are starting to arrive here to altend next week's annual convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association

The annual meeting, which gets under way Monday, is expected to be one of the largest gatherings of newspapermen ever held in Canada. It is the weekly newspapers' 36th annual convention. More than 500 are expected to attend. Between them, the weekly editors publish newspapers which reach and influence an audience of more than 1,000,000 In Vancouver, the "homelown" editors will study a variety of problems everything from new printing techniques to national and local problems such as government taxation. Among convention speakers will be Premier W. A. Bennett of British Columbia. A highlight of the convention will be presentation of special awards to newspapers which have won CWNA better newspaper competitions during the past
