MONTREAL (CP)—The question of Canada's participation in the 1957 world hockey tournament at Moscow was scheduled for a full-dress debate today at the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association's 40th annual meeting.

There was a bare possibility that the question might not be reached until the final plenary session of the big amateur body at the wind-up meeting Thursday.

Rainiers Assume PCL Lead

Seattle Rainiers, by virtue of thumping Vancouver Mounties, 8-1, moved into the driver's seat of the Pacific Coast League Tuesday night.

Rainiers moved past Los Angeles to take the lead by a one-game margin after the Angels went down 11-7 to San Diego.

In Sacramento, a one-man ball club by the name of Jerry Casale tripped in two runs in the seventh inning, struck out five and pitched San Francisco to an 8-3 win over the Solons. It was his fifth victory.

A three-run burst in the final inning in Portland broke a 1-1 tie and gave the game to Hollywood 4-1 in the first game at Portland's new baseball park.

The same teams meet again tonight.

Vancouver "Baby-Sitters" Tie Scots 1-1

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—A Canadian women's team from Vancouver drew 1-1 with Scotland today in an international women's field hockey contest here.

Half-time score of the game was 1-0 in Canada's favor.

The Canadian team is made up of 16 British Columbia girls who bolstered their travel fund to attend the tournament by baby-sitting and other fund-raising projects.

The team and members of the Vancouver Women's Grass Hockey Association raised $3,000 to match the same amount given by an anonymous donor.

After the tournament the six will tour Australia and New Zealand, returning to Vancouver.

Bottlers Stage Twin Spree To Overwhelm Kinsmen 13-5

North Stars exploded in two big innings last night, the first and the fourth, to overwhelm Kinsmen 13-5 in a Prince Rupert Little League fixture at Algoma park.

Dick Boyle's bottlers found Billy Alexander's pitching to their liking from the start, chalking up seven runs in the first inning on six hits.

Gord Cameron's Kinsmen settled down for two innings but allowed North Star a single run, in managing to cut down the lead to an 8-4 margin after 3½ innings.

The roof fell in in the bottom of the fourth when North Stars brought across five runs on as many hits to salt the game away.

Ricky Harris replaced Alexander in the fifth and stemmed the tide.

Cabbie Trundlers Make Sweep

Radio Cabs bowlers dominated the scene last Wednesday when "A" league mixed spring league keglers took to the alleys, as they took all trundling honors in sight.

Russ McNeil won men's high single with a 281 game and Gord Marion took men's high three with a 652 total. Joan Parks won both women's laurels for a 270 single game and a 744 three-game total. The cab keglers posted 1291 and 3641 scores for both team honors.

The resolution asked the CAHA, on behalf of the Greater Winnipeg Minor Hockey Association, to prohibit players under junior age from playing junior hockey in Manitoba, without special permission of the Manitoba branch.

Eric Christison took both men's kegeling honors last Thursday when "B" league bowled with a 258 single high game and a 528 three-game total.

Eve Yates of CPA took women's high single with a 235 game while high three went to Peggy Thompson of Good Neighbors with 234.

Lucky Strikes garnered both team single and three with scores of 1127 and 3414.

Results: A league—Overwaitea 2, Checker Cabs 2; Savoy Hotel 4, Jersey Farms 0; Mansoni's 1, Rock 'n' Roll 3; Radio Cabs 3; Teen Olds 1.

In last week's tabulariers M. Logan of Savoy Hotel should have been shown with women's high single for "A" league on a 257 score. Story listed Jessie Shenton of Teen Olds with 234.

Aaron Back In .300 Club As Braves Bounce Brooklyn Into Fourth Place

By The Associated Press

All Hank Aaron needed to shake loose from Milwaukee's list of stumping sluggers was a taste of Brooklyn pitching just as Dodger manager Walt Alston feared.

Aaron, who hadn't been over .300 since the fourth game of the season, put himself right with a rousing four-for-five—a home run, double and two singles—as the National League-leading Braves pushed Brooks into fourth place Tuesday night with a 7-3 decision. It was Henry's first four-hit game of the season and upped his average 31 points to fall really is terrific." Thus far in the regular season, the 22-year-old clout is belting Brooklyn pitching at a .556 clip—with five of his 17 hits and half of his four home runs. His stickwork helped Braves gain a slim 23-point edge over runner-up St. Louis. Cardinals ended a three-game Pittsburgh winning streak 6-3 despite a home run, double and single by Pirates' Dale Long, who gained the major league lead with a .411 bat mark. Cincinnati took over third, half-a-game ahead of the Brooks, by
