Canucks Tie Second With Royals, Cougars Win, But Still in Cellar

By The Canadian Press
Edmonton Flyers climbed within two points of Brandon Regals in the Prairie division of the Western Hockey League Friday night by edging Regals 5-4 in overtime in Edmonton. The win left Brandon with 15 points to Edmonton's 13.

In the Coast division, New Westminster Royals musted their chance to move up on first-place Seattle when the cellar-dwelling Victoria Cougars beat them 3-1 in Victoria.

Royals' loss, coupled with a Vancouver Canucks 5-3 win over

Winnipeg Warriors, tied New Westminster and Vancouver at 10 points each in second place in the Coast division. Victoria and Calgary are the cellar teams in the two divisions with seven points each.

POILE SCORES IN OVERTIME

Tonight, Winnipeg plays in Seattle. Victoria faces off against Royals in New Westminster, and first-place Brandon of the Prairie division takes on the last-place Stampeders in Victoria.

IRON for B.C.

On Limonite Creek, 38 Miles East of Terrace, B.C.

SHAWANO IRON MINES LTD.

(NON-PERSONAL LIABILITY)

Shawano owns outright 10 Mineral Claims and 5 Crown Grants are held by agreement of sale, total of 700 acres in one block. On these claims there occurs an extensive deposit of Iron Ore (Limonite, Brown Hematite) covering a known area of approximately 200 acres to an undetermined depth. Free from impurities, the ore averages 54% iron — Sulphur and Phosphorous are within Bossmere Steel limits. Cheap open pit mining — No overburden except the trees and moss — The ore is crumbly and of a loose consistency. Pits and shafts put down on this deposit failed to reach bedrock at 30 feet.

Ore will be moved by truck to Terrace and thence by rail to Klimat, a deep sea port.

Consulting Mining Engineers reporting in the Minister of Mines Annual Reports, Province of British Columbia, estimate tonnage up to 7,000,000 TONS.

New vacuum drill purchased with drilling underway as soon as possible in order to delimit tonnages.

Final Trotter Show Tonight

No Prelims, Starts 8:30 p.m.
Stage Superb Exhibition

Final of the three night exhibition series between the Harlem Globetrotters and the Hawaiian Surfriders gets underway tonight at 8:30 p.m. There will be no preliminaries.

Making their third appearance in the city, the Trotters have thrilled spectators the past two nights with magnificent exhibitions of ball manipulations, dribbling and hilarious stunts.

Director of the Civic Centre, Fred Jones reports capacity crowds have jammed the gymnasium to watch the spectacle. He advises persons wishing rush tickets to get there early to avoid disappointment.

Yesterday the Globetrotters followed much the same pattern as the preceding night.

The crowd was thrilled with the dribbling of Herman Taylor and laughed at the antics of Sam Wheeler and J. C. Gypsum.
