Valdes or Cocke! Champ's Next Test

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YCRK (AP)—Ezzard Charles has gone the way of the other 40 of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciono's knockout victims, and now it appear that either Britain's Don Cockell or Cuba's Nino Valdes will get the next chance to test the unbeaten Brockton blaster's dynamite.

"Cockell or Valdes—the one who brings the most money—is charging, bull-like Marciano took next," said Manager Al Weill command. after last night's fight. Rocky nodded his head.

on his left brow. "But he ain't going to go any more this year," said Weill. "Rocky will need plastic surgery to fix that cut on his nose.

February? Maybe. We'll see. First we gotta leave today for Los Angeles. Rocky's on that comedy hour Sunday with Eddie Fisher. Then we gotta consider a movie offer, a job in Las Vegas, and a European refereeing tour.' For fighting next we're going international—Cockell or Valdes." LOOK ABROAD

> Rocky really has to look abroad for his next opponent, for his eighth-round knockout of Charles wiped out his last major challenger in the United States. The 33-year-old Charles, making an unprecedented third bid to become the first exchampion to regain the title, went down for the full count after absorbing a withering bar-

It was a one-way battle after , the first round. Charles tossed left hooks and short rights to win the first round—the only one he received from the three officials—but in the second the
