Moore-Durelle fight

MONCTON (CP) — A world light-heavyweight title fight between champion Archie Moore of San Diego, Calif., and Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., has been set for Dec. 10 in the Montreal Forum, it was announced Wednesday night by Durelle's manager, Chris Shaban.

Shaban said he talked by phone with Truman Gibson of the International Boxing Club in Chicago. Gibson told him he had come to financial terms with Moore while on the west coast for the Carmen Basilio-Art Aragon fight.

Moore's terms will be announced later. He has constantly demanded $100,000 for a title defence. Durelle will be guaranteed $12,000 but stands a chance of making more depending on the TV and gate receipts.

In Montreal, fight promoter Eddie Quinn who had been trying to make arrangements for a Durelle-Moore match said Shaban's announcement was "all news to me."
