LACK OF INTEREST IN SONS ASSAILED BY PONY LEAGUER

The callous indifference of parents to the sports activities of their sons was assailed today by a Pony League baseball spokesman after Elks trounced Gyro 13-6 before a mere handful of spectators.

The spokesman said that few persons realized that the name Pony League stands for Protect Our National Youth and that a handful of adults were working several nights a week doing "just that."

"They put in a lot of time and effort so that these youngsters can play baseball. Very few people support these boys, maybe a faithful 10 or 12."

The spokesman said that "it was these faithful few" who contribute every time to a sorely depleted Pony League fund. "We put up a pretty good brand of baseball and it would encourage the boys to do even better if a few more parents and friends would turn out to cheer them on," the league official said.

In last night's game Stewart got the win giving up only seven hits to the Gyros. Gene Dorash absorbed the loss, after being relieved by Don Love in the third inning. 2 1 3 4 1 0 2 - 13
