Mrs. Erling Pedersen was elected president of the Women's association of the First United church Wednesday night when the group held its general meet-" ing in the church hall. She succeeds Mrs. Bruce Bennett.

The well attended annual session took place in the form of a dinner meeting with Rev. Vernon E. McEachern presiding over the election of officers. Others taking office were Mrs. Roy Boychuk, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert McBride, second vice-president; Mrs. Harold Thomas, treasurer, and Mrs. A. Donald Ritchie, secretary.

During the business session records showed a considerable increase in membership.

TWO LONELY MALES

"I've been designing jewelry since 1937, and I can remember only two men customers who came alone to order jeweled pieces made up.

"One was a man who wanted me to design a jeweled rat for his wife. The other wanted a jeweled cat, also for his wife, The rat was rather nice, as it turned out. I designed it in grey saphires."

Schlumberger divides his time between his Paris salon and his office and laboratory in New York, where he dreams up halfmillion-dollar buubles.

He once had his own New York shop. But, he said, he was somewhat limited in scope, because when one deals with 10-carate diamonds and pigeon's egg rubles, one can't keep a very large stock on hand-unless one happens to be a maharajah, that is INTO BIG STORE

REV. W. E. LEGGETTE Pastor of Pentecostal Tabernacle ETERNITY

The Bible tells us here was a certain rich man clothed in fine linen and fared sumptuously every day, also there was a beggar, his name was Lazarus who laid at the gate of the rich mans house and was fed with crumbs that fell from his table.

It goes on to tell the beggar |into Abraham's bosom, also the of Him. rich man died and was burled. lifted up his eyes and saw Laza- little time, and then vanisheth rus in Abraham's bosom. The away. rich man had lots of time to think and consider and he called in Hell" but two minutes in cool his tongue with water.

However, it was to late. There and gnashing of teeth, will was a great gulf betwixt, yet he had another plea.

"Go back and warn my brothers, that they may not come to this place of torment. "But he that you are a sinner, that Christ" was only reminded they had the word of God. They could accept that or reject it."

The rich man didn't go to hell (where there is weeping and gnasing of teeth) because he neglect so great Salvation?" was rich. He went there because he rejected Christ. He thought he was doing fine without accepting Christ in his life. In John 3:3 it states "Except a man be born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God,"

In verse 15 it says: "That whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." Jesus said, "Enter in at the straight gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction. and many here be which go in thereat: because straight is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

What about you my friend? Perhaps you are depending on your money like the rich man, giving no thought of where you will spend eternity and how
