Been among the missing for the past few weeks and nice to be back to the sunshine. Had been hearing so many stories about the car deals that awaited "the boy from the country" at Vancouver so let my curiosity lead me and am back to re-

Take my word for it all yee of little faith. You can't do better in Vancouver when it comes to buying cars. You can't get within three hundred simoleons of what you will be offered locally on an average trade-in and you just don't meet such nice people to deal with.

Tell you what I did see on the way however. Nine out of ten motorists with families are travelling in gypsy fashion these days with their tent. sleeping bags etc. and are avoiding the high price of travelling by taking advantage of * - * the excellent facilities being provided by the proper expenditure of your tax dollar.

Was so impressed with this nomadic manner of living that have decided to equip all our Plymouth buyers with a commete outfit free of charge for the remainder of the vacation-

More about our vacation roads are remarkably good even where construction is taking place. It's fruit picking time in the Okanagan, the Kelowna Regatta is about to begin and might I remind you that the only way to develop an appreciation for your home town is to get away for a few weeks.

Happy to report that have it from good anthority that the wage disputes at Watson Island will be settled before anything drastic in the strike line takes place. Nice to know these things in these days of strife and high cost of living!.
