Canadian Held in Hammer Murder

FORMAL GATHERING—As formal-looking as as ever, these Antarctic Emperor Penguins pose for the camera of a Russian photographer. Soviet scientists are included among the throng of researchers from all parts of the world studying the frozen bottom of the world as part of the International Geophysical Year.

St. Laurent Draws Biggest Crowd; Diefendaker Cheered on Homecoming

Suits Topcoats ALTERATION SPECIALISTS QUICK SERVICE

Ling The Tailor Phone 4238

阿里尼斯阿拉拉拉拉拉拉拉阿里阿里阿里

Wallace's Sale

WALLACE'S

drew his biggest and liveliest crowd. John Diefenbaker had a happy homecoming. For M. J. Coldwell and Solon Low was out Conservative policy, not for her: more election roadwork.

More than 4,500 persons pack-liquidating and paid their own me?" ed Ottawa's Coliseum Monday way night to hear the prime minister concentrate his fire on Progressive Conservative Leader Diefenbaker. It was the Liberal leader's biggest crowd so far in his campaign for the June 10 election.

was welcomed to his home constituency of Prince Albert, Sask., Wallace's Dept. Store cost of implementing Conservative policy would not be more it by the Liberals. PRODDED GOVERNMENTS in his northern Alberta constit- pers complained of the noise. uency of Peace River.

think Canadians would go for ance. vegetarianism to the point of making the Conservative leader prime minister June 10.

In Saskatoon, Mr. Diefenbaker |said Liberal spokesmen are claiming it would cost $1,500,000.- | train, not cost more than $300,000.- Vancouver were treated at hos- American fishboat was pulled lower taxes "and still do it on BER BREEN BREEN BREEN BREEN Balanced budget."

100 One Hundred Dollars Monday, May 27 JACK-POT BINGO Centre 8:00 p.m.

One Hundred Dollars

industriesment to not aublished or displayed by the Lieups Control Apard or by the Courtament of Attitch Columbia

'Felt No Emotion' Asserts Suspect

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—An impassive Canadian who was quoted as saying he "felt no emotion at all" was held today as charges were prepared in the claw-hammer slaying of a pretty dancing instructor 19 years his junior.

then she came out here . . I ing. "I was not angry. I felt 46, of London, Ont., walked into Wendy said, "the girls are a San Francisco police station asleep." She then went to the Monday with blood on his hands bathroom. She said she came and coat and admitted he had out as van Horne was leaving bludgeoned Mrs. Nancy McLen- the bedroom, his hands and coat nan, 27, as she slept at the home dripping blood. of her mother in nearby Menlo Police said he told them he went "to the garage and got the

The slightly-built Canadian, hammer" and that when he enthey said, contended "She was tered Mrs., McLennan's room my girl friend up to four years | "she was sleeping on her side, ago in Canada but her mother her back to me." objected and I got burned over "I hit her hard, on the left it. We used to go together but temple," he was quoted as say-sent letters and she didn't an- no emotion at all." swer." He also said she "would- Then he left in the woman's n't have anything to do with convertible to surrender. me" because of "some spirit- Mrs. McLennan separated age containing 100 Bibles was ualist church she was going to." from her husband in London, stolen from a parked car Saturcame to Menlo Park in Novem- Toni, 4. and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. his wife William van Horne. The stepfather is the Canadian's brother.

"NO EMOTION AT ALL" Early Monday morning, after Mr. and Mrs. William van Horne had left for work, Mrs. McLennan's half-sister, Wendy van His $300,000,000 maximum fig- Horne, 14, saw Clare standing ure would be for current ex- in the hall outside Nancy's door penditures involved in carrying. She said Van Horne asked capital projects that were self- "Why doesn't Nancy talk to "Because she doesn't want to

B.C. NEWS ROUNDUP

paign for the June 10 election. Mr. Diefenbaker meantime, Mr. welcomed to his home conwith band music and cheers. Earlier, in Saskatoon, he said the GHILLIWACK, B.C. (1)—RCMP were called out to deal with the other side of the bridge, of special meetings in Evangelithan a fifth of the price set on rowdy teenaged youths during a weekend disturbance at a trailer into West Vancouver. | cal Free church Thursday, May camp at Cultus Lake, six miles from here.

Cpl. Kenneth Attree of the In a radio speech from Win- Chilliwack RCMP said a number nipeg, CCF Leader Coldwell ad- of Chilliwack youths tried to released to police custody. vocated an immigration policy break down the door of a cabin that would be an integral part where several Vancouver girls! of planned development of the were staying. A youth who intervened on the girls' behalf was street. Social Credit Leader Low con- | punched on the nose and rocks | tinued his grass roots cultivation | were thrown at tents when cam-

Mr. St. Laurent, who moved were "rounded up" but no charinto Quebec today for a night ges were laid because the com-meeting at Trois-Rivieres, told plainants failed to identify them. his Coliseum audience that Mr. Arnold Kipp, manager of the Diefenbaker's aim "seems to be city-owned camp, said he had "pigs"—total weight more than a carrot for every Canadian." not received a report from the a ton—to the Harris Junk Com-But the Liberal chieftain didn't camp caretaker on the disturb-pany of Vancouver last December. The crown alleges they are

> VANCOUVER (P) - A man and Mining and Smelting Company his wife escaped with minor in- but Panagabko pleaded "not juries Monday when their car guilty" to retaining stolen propwas in collision with a freight crty.

Mr. and Mrs. John Quick of pital and discharged. Their car off the rocks early Monday near was clipped by a northbound Rock Camp Point, 56 miles east would carry out its promises and B.C. Electric freight train at a of Alert Bay. eity intersection. The force of and It came to rost about 30 feet > price of bread here is expected | tide. to increase one cent within the near future,

A spokesman for McGavin's cost of production. Bread presently retails 17 cents a loaf.

Glen McDonald ordered an in-ling Columbia River power, Sunday of a 34-year-old man, meeting here Saturday night arrested on a charge of drunken-that the premier "still hopes in ness and later found dead in jall the back of his mind to make a formorly of Winnipog, was found. He said Mr. Bennett is trying | lying on the street early Sunday to "obscure" the federal Govern- | morning. A withese said he had ment's offer of aid in developing i fallon to the street,

VANCOUVER (1) --- A 65-foot

fore Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson.

of copper and 28 antimonial lead

the property of Consolidated

The Golden West ran aground the impact rolled the car over sunday. None of the three men aboard was injured. She was pulled free by the tug Sea Ferring after she was unable to - The float free on an earlier high

> The Golden West was not seviously damaged and was able to b broseed on her own when she

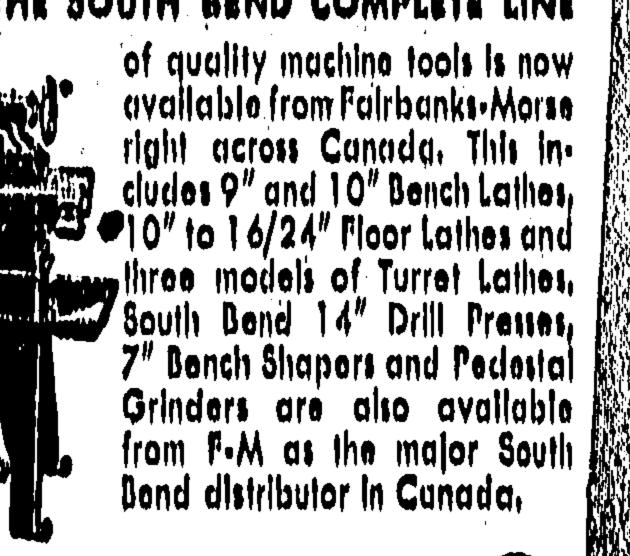

REVELSTOKE, B.C. (0)-Pish-| eries Minister James Sinclair | says Premier Bonnett is trying to "wensel out" of accepting fed-VANCOUVER (1) --- Coronor oral government aid in develop-

Mr. Sinclair told a campaign to harness Columbia Polico said John Standlfor, River power for American use, the Columbia,

THE SOUTH BEND COMPLETE LINE

708 Bently St., Tol, TA 0211

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS—Putting a new face on safety, Margery Sandford stars in a double exposure, as she meets herself, apparently inside a suit designed for fire and crash, crews. The protective glass window of the suit acted as a mirror to reflect Miss Sandford's face at a factory equipment exhibition in London.

Prionce Rupert Daily News

• FINE, FAMOUS CHINESE DISHES

I APPOUL OF THE PARTY OF THE PA

TODAY TO WEDNESDAY

For Orders to

SHOWS 7 -- 9 P.M.

The story that

HAD to win the

Pulitzer Prize!

From 20th Century Fox in

CINEMASCOPE

MILL AND DODOMINE

MILLAND, ROKRINIF

BRAVENEN

THE PARTY

"A CRY IN THE NIGHT"

"AMAZON TRADER"

SHOWS 7 -- 9 p.m.

Take Out

Tuesday, May 28, 1957

SHOULD HAVE KEPT ONE Mrs. McLennan, shapely Ont., and came here with her day. Monday the opened packmother of two small daughters, two daughters, Susan ,6, and age was deposited on the steps.

NEW. ORLEANS (A) A pack-

THE MELROSE. ber and lived with her mother Van Horne is estranged from butes free Bibles. None was Traffic Tied Up To Watch

> VANCOUVER (P)—Two young Miss Gerbracht. dirty-faced immigrants eager for a good smiling after the climb "The view of Vancouver climbed 200 view was beautiful! feet to a tower above Lions Gate | Police said no charges would bridge Sunday and caused a be laid. O'Connor arrived here! traffic tie-up on the span be- from England nine months ago fore being hauled down by police. while Miss Gerbracht came from > and Mary Ann Gerbracht, 21, next-door neighbors in Vancou-ver were 400 feet above the water Special Meetings from the bridge's south tower. By the time they clambered

He was treated at hospital and Plan Raft Trip Police said an autopsy report BORDEAUX, France (Reuters)

showed he may have suffered a -French adventurers Guy Goubrain injury in his fall to the tepifre, 28, and Rene Lescombe soon will try to cross the Atlan-NELSON (P)— The third and tic on a 16-foot pine-log raft.) final criminal case of the Nelson | They expect to drift to the Am-Cpl. Attree said some youths spring assizes began Monday be- erican coast in four or five months, living off what Edward Panagabko of Tadanac | find in the seal has admitted selling 262 pounds

Immigrant Pair on Bridge

Fergus Patrick O'Connor, 27, Holland only seven weeks ago.

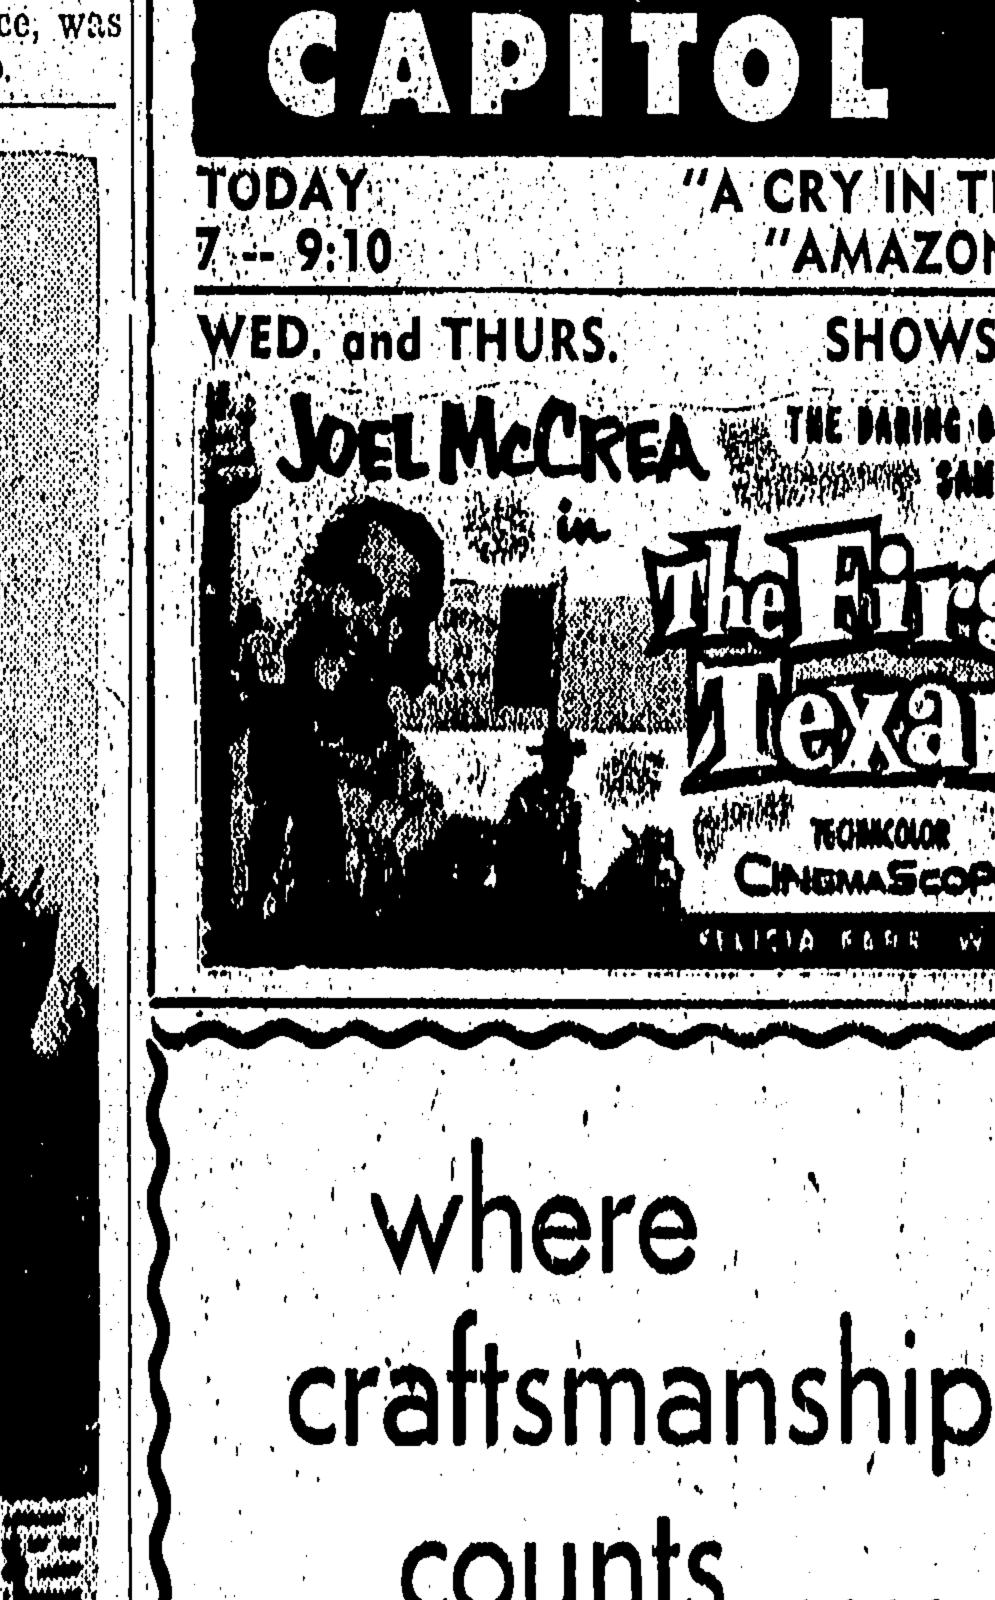

they scanned the harbor Starts Thursday

Rev. Don Masterson, principal down under the eyes of eight of the Peace River Bible Instipolicemen, traffic was lined up tute, Sexsmith, Alta. and a team back into Stanley Park and, or of musicians will begin a series "It was well worth it," said 30 and continue to June 2. All —— the meetings are at 8 p.m. Mrs. Masterson, pianist and a mixed trio will be presenting special music during these services. Saturday evening the film "Martin Luther" will be shown Everyone

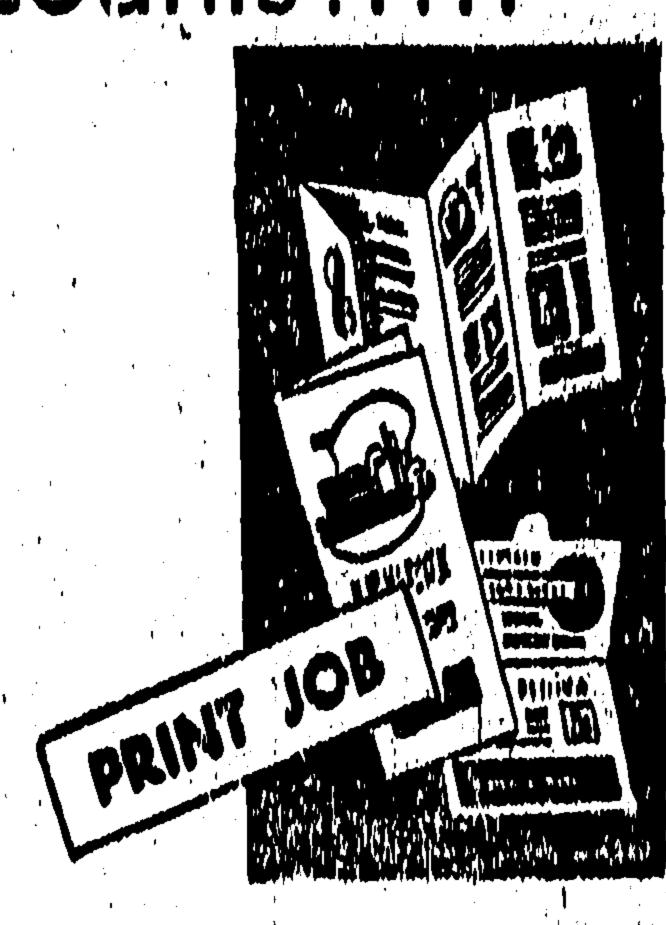

OLD LANDMARK

welcome, a church spokesman

Turku Castle Finland's most they important historical edifice, was built about 700 years ago.

Where crattsmanship

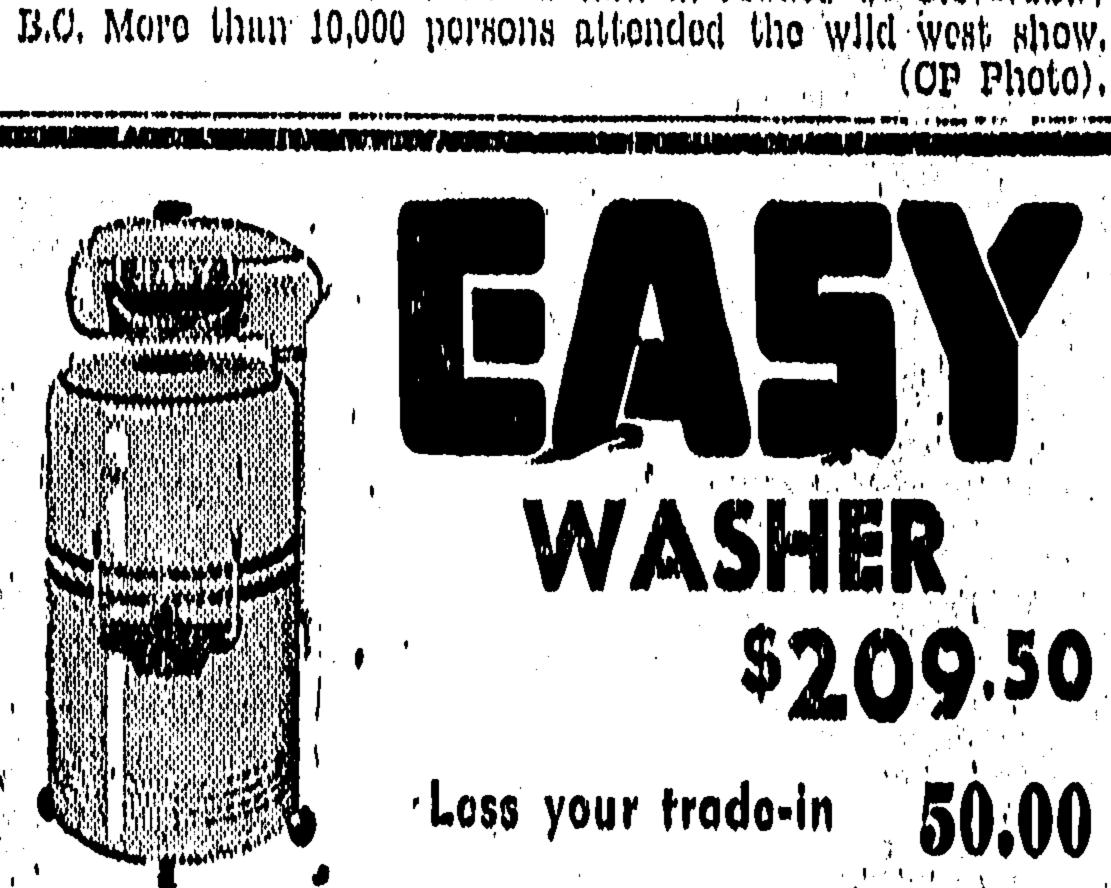

For the ultimate in the printing art. modest cost, be sure to consult with us for your next printing order,

there is no obligation, Just phone 4125 for an appointment,

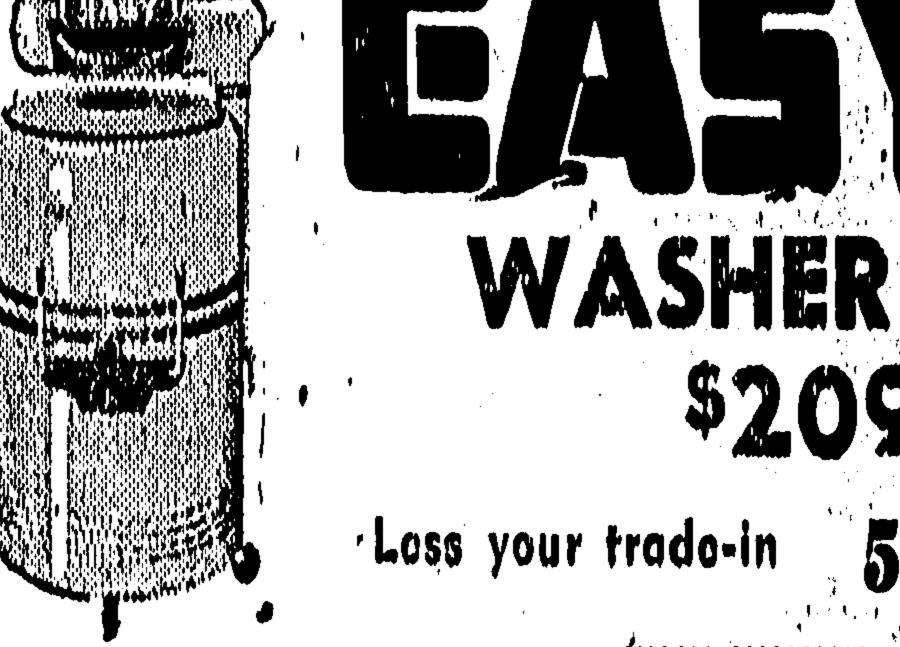

COMMERCIAL PRINTING DEPT

Rathe 'Est COWBOY-An unidentified ridor holds on for done

ife as his hore tries to throw him in readen at Cloverdale,

$159.50 YOU PAY

As low as $8 per, month,

"The Store That Service Built"

PHONE

2326