

G & A Edge Hotelmen 12-11

Triple, Fielder's Choice Settle Mediocre Contest

By DICK AYRES

A resounding three-base hit by Gordon and Anderson's Bill Sunberg and a fielder's choice in the bottom of the seventh inning gave the hardwaremen a 12-11 decision over Hotelmen at Roosevelt Park.

The error-studded Prince Rupert and District baseball league game also saw the two teams leave a total of 19 men stranded on the bases, collect 17 walks, 11 passed balls all of which contributed to a ball game slightly above mediocre.

Only excitement was provided as the lead changed hands due to the other team's misplays.

EARY LEAD Joe Giordano's hotel squad jumped into an early lead in the opening inning on a single, a steal, a walk, another single and another walk. G & A got one run back in their half of the first on a walk, a double and two passed balls.

G & A starter Keith McDonald held the Hotelmen scoreless in the second and in the third, the latter with the aid of left-fielder Ian Dunbar who pulled off a sensational one-handed catch of Andy Marshall's fly ball.

Errors and passed balls saw G & A get another run across and their a double by Syd Scherk gave the hardware the lead 4-3 and three consecutive walks given up by Hotel's Bare made it 5-3 for G & A.

Two errors, two walks and a double by playing coach Joe Giordano gave the hotel crew three more runs and the lead again.

STARTED RALLY

Sunberg with a two-bagger started a G & A rally in the bottom of the fourth. Sunberg advanced to third when Len Lavik was safe on a boo boo and Sunberg came home on a sacrifice fly by shortstop Don Hartwig to tie the game at 6-6. At this point first-sacker Cliff Dahl replaced Bare and Gordon Cameron took over first.

Dahl fared little better than his predecessor. Two errors, a passed ball and a single by Bill Morrison saw G & A plate three more runs to make it 10-6.

No did G & A pitcher McDonald improve. Hotelmen got

The New York Yankees weren't always in a commanding position in the American League pennant race last season. On June 24 they dropped a double header to the Chicago White Sox and their two runs back in the fifth and one in the sixth aided by walks, a hit-batter and a double in each inning by Bill Yerema. In the top of the seventh, after Dahl had held G & A scoreless and hitless, for two innings, the hotelmen tied up the ball game on a walk, an error and fielder's choice and a beaten out bunt. A single by Lentuk put the hotelmen back in the lead 11-10.

With one out in the bottom of the seventh G & A Kilpatrick got a walk and Sunberg blasted out a triple to score him. Lavik grounded to short but was safe on a fielder's choice when Sunberg beat the throw to home.

McDonald the winner gave up 10 hits, walked 10, struck out seven. Loser Dahl, gave up three hits, walked three, fanned one. Starter Bare, allowed four hits, walked four and struck out three.

Confident Prediction

Milt (Toronto Star) Dunnell says that despite the smoke screens set up in Montreal at the recent hockey meetings, the three-way deal involving Detroit, Montreal and Chicago will be announced in a few days.

"Ted Lindsay and Glenn Hall go to the Black Hawks, Terry Sawchuk returns to the Red Wings, Forbes Kennedy, Johnny Wilson and Hank Bassen of the Hawks also wind up in Detroit," he told a dinner gathering in Toronto the other night.

Milt says . . .

Stafford Smythe, who heads the newly appointed seven-man Toronto Maple Leafs brain trust, doesn't think his dad, Conn, will interfere if things aren't going too well for the National Hockey League team. Staff told Andy (Montreal Star) O'Brien:

"Dad won't butt in. In my books he will always be the greatest hockey mind Canada has ever produced. But all of us in the deal have decided we have to go it alone—any interference and we quit. It's the only way..."

Film Big Help

Coach Doug Walker of the Big Four Montreal Alouettes has developed a great belief in films of football games. "If you do away with movies you do away with the game," Penhead said the other day. "Without the movies you operate by ear. The film takes the guesswork out of the game..."

The same day Walker made his remarks, Hal (Edmonton Journal) Pawson reported things normal at the Edmonton Eskimo office. Head coach Pop Ivy and assistants Ray Prochaska and Eagle Keys were "in the basement screening room straining their eyes on last year's films, just as if they'd never left off since last Grey Cup," Pawson reported.

Ted (Toronto Telegram) Reeve has turned book reviewer for the Sunday Telegram. Ted's "Sporting Extras" column still occupies its usual sports-page spot . . .

Managing director Lew Hayman of Toronto Argonauts said a major reason his Big Four football club lost interest in quarterback Bobby Garrett was because the former Stanford University player stammered.

"Frankly, we did not press to sign him because of this stutter," Hayman said. "Conchamp Pool wanted his quarterback to be the field leader and we thought Garrett would be 'handicapped' . . .
