Okanagan Lake Sunday are to be honored by a special city fund and engraved scrolls, Mayor C. E. Oliver announced Mr. Oliver announced that a fund would be set up for Pat Wicks, 19, of Vancouver almost immediately after the girl completed her 34-mile swim from Kelowna to Penticton. Seven hours later Mrs. Ann Meraw, 38, of Vancouver, duplicated the feat. A special city council meeting was held a few hours later. It was decided to split the fund evenly between the two. The scroll for Miss Wicks is for being the first to swim the lake and the scroll for Mrs. Meraw will pay tribute to her triumph and to the 32-hour lake swimming endurance record she set.
