Tiger mound ace trims Yanks 12-5

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Frank Lary of Detroit is practically a cinch to become the first pitcher in 14 years to beat the Yankees six times in one season.

Lary, 27, had little trouble did it against both New York and beating the Yankees 12-5 Tuesday for his fifth over the Amer-'ican League leaders this season. No one has beaten the Yankees against Brooklyn. I six times in one year since 1944,

CONTENDER HOLT CONFIDENT OF BEATING DURELLE TONIGHT

MONTREAL (CP)—Mike Holt, sleek-looking South African fighter, makes no bones about his plans...to handle Yvon Durelle in their British Empire light-heavyweight title bout

"I'll-wear-him down," said Holt. with finality Tuesday night. There was just enough crispness in his voice to indicate he's a trifle edgy—in peak condition and ready.

"If he wants to make a fight of it, I don't think it will ? go the limit. I'm not underestimating him, but if there's a knockout I think I'll be the one who scores it. I hear he's a wonderful hitter. I can hit too."

Durelle's ideas about a possible knockout were equally positive—"If I get my opening he's going to die early."
