lear's Last Races Successful Event

By MEINHART LAGIES Daily News Staff Writer

Cliff Klages steered his speedy boat to one win, one second and two third places at the Prince Rupert Outboard association's final regatta Sunday to end the season as most successful racer of the day and the vear. The sun was bright, water for finishing. choppy but not rough, participation encouraging, organization good and turnout fair as 13 racers and their boats presented three-hour spectacle in front of the Canadian National Railways

Though hampered by bad luck his motor conked out in two races Cliff Klages collected 15 points for a season total of 33. Distant second with 21 points class, Bob Armstrong turned the third place finish yesterday. * Tied for third honors with 20 points each were Pat Wilson and the 12 to 20 hp class. Wally Henry Seppa, with two wins chalked up a second and third ond and two third places respecplace, and Frank Baldwin, pull- tively. John Denning was fourth ing up a full 13 points with one and Gordon Watson fifth in the win, one second, one third and a started but unfinished race.

The scoring system awards three points to the winner, two for second and one for third place. In addition, one points is given for starting a race and one

The regatta got underway with the top thriller of the afternoon, a duel in the nine to 12 horsepower class between Don Vaale and Randy Baldwin, with Don crossing the line five feet ahead of Randy. Bob Armstrong finished a quarter of a lap behind, and Bill Rothwell the same distance again.

In the second heat of this was Bob Armstrong, who picked tables, showing Don Vaale and up 8 points with one win and a Randy Baldwin his stern.

Pat Wilson left all competition far behind in both heats of Ballinger and Don McDonald had to be satisfied with two secfirst heat. They did not take B.C. NEWS ROUNDUP part in the second one.

Other doublewinner of the afternoon was Henry Seppa in the Class X competition. Outracing and outcornering Cliff Klages, opposition from Baldwin and Klages during the second race Wallace's Dept. Store a until Klages conked out and Baldwin hit a buoy—for the second time in the afternoon.

Baldwin took his first try at this mariners' aid in the second sel Island Comet was towing the The bank's teller said "a small heat of the 20 to 30 hp. races. Kalakala of Washington State amount" of money was taken. Coming out second best in the Ferries Ltd. when it was struck collision, he dropped out of the by the ferry's bow. race and gave Cliff Klages, only The Island Comet sank 10 shortly after the bank opened other competitor, an easy win. minutes later. Captain David for late-afternoon trading. Po- VANCOUVER (F) — President In the first heat of this class. he out-nosed Chris Harvey in a photo-finish while Klages had sinking tug and were picked up motor trouble and coasted in by a fisheries department vesmore than a lap behind. The only spill of the day was provided by water-skier Dick Ty- | toria hospital and later released. man who lost his balance in Diving operations are under way front of the docks and got dunk- to salvage the tug.

hazard in upper Vancouver Is- ed" to a bus load of 33 passenland forests has led two major, gers Friday near Peachland. logging companies to close roads to hunters. enter MacMilland and Bloedel around in circles. and Comox Logging and Railway company lands. Forestry officials said conditions in the district are exremely hazardous because temperatures, but closure is indicated yet.

Thank goodness we're preparing jor

ASIAN FLU

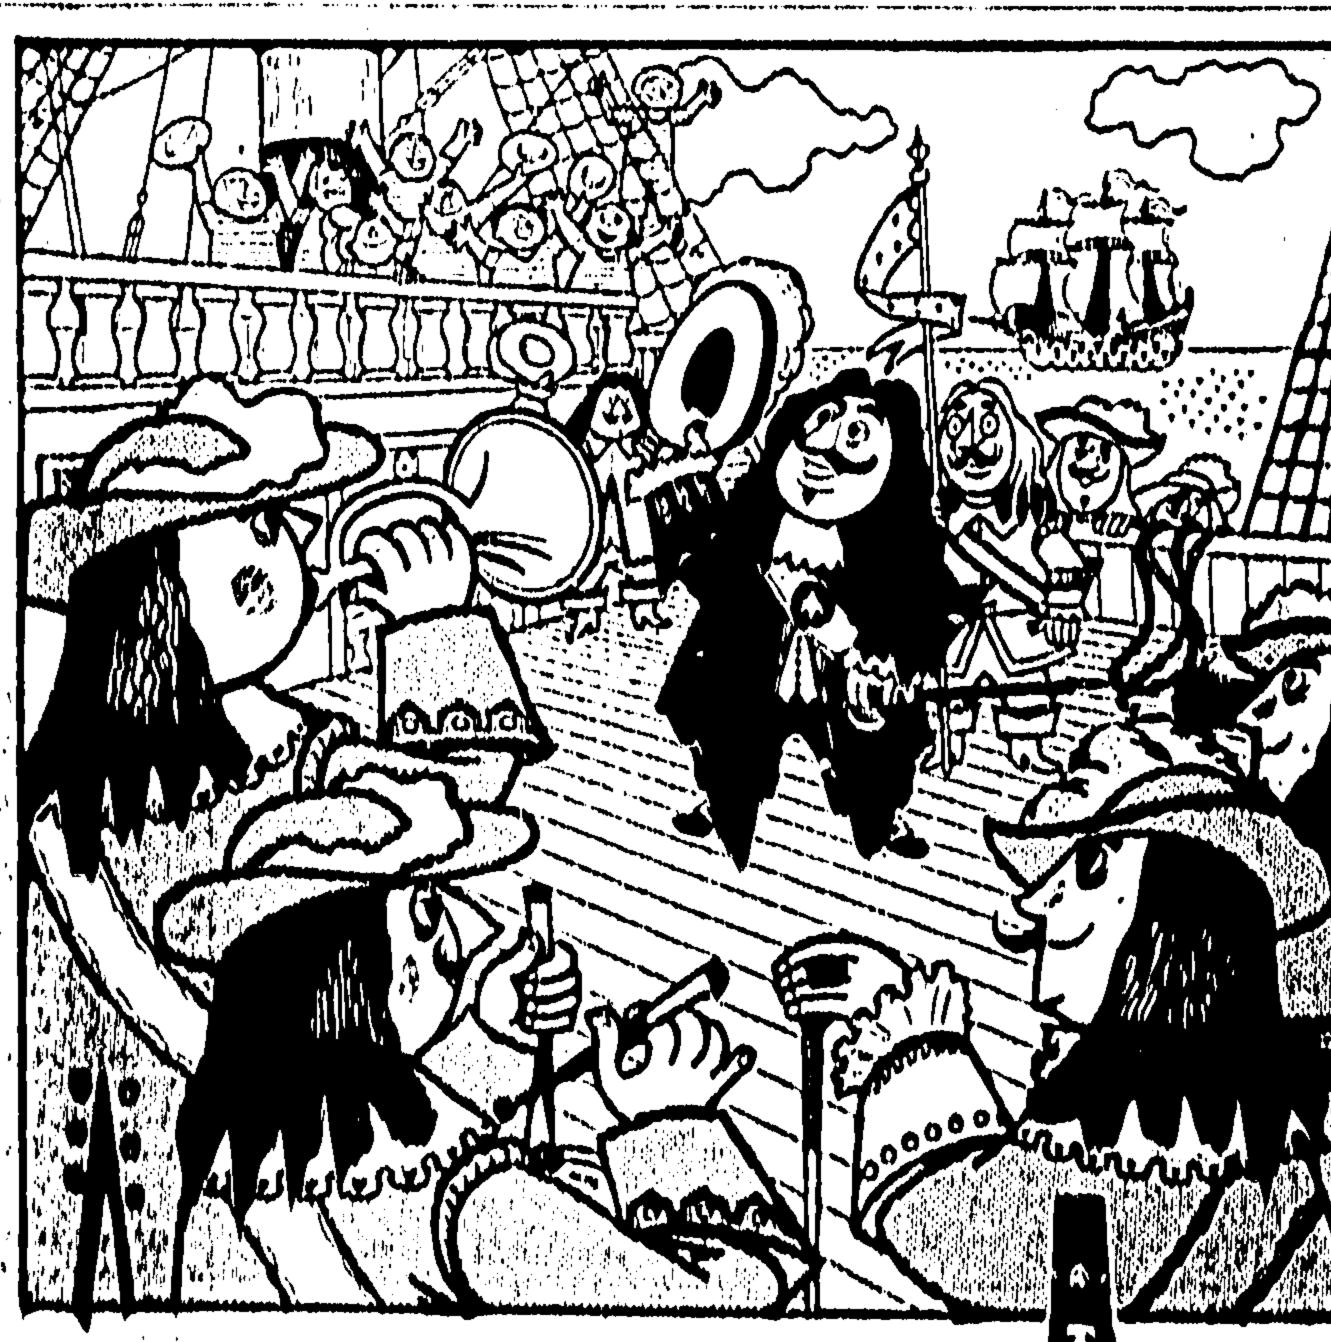

COAS

WALLACE'S

DEPT. STORE

the interesting istories appear in the

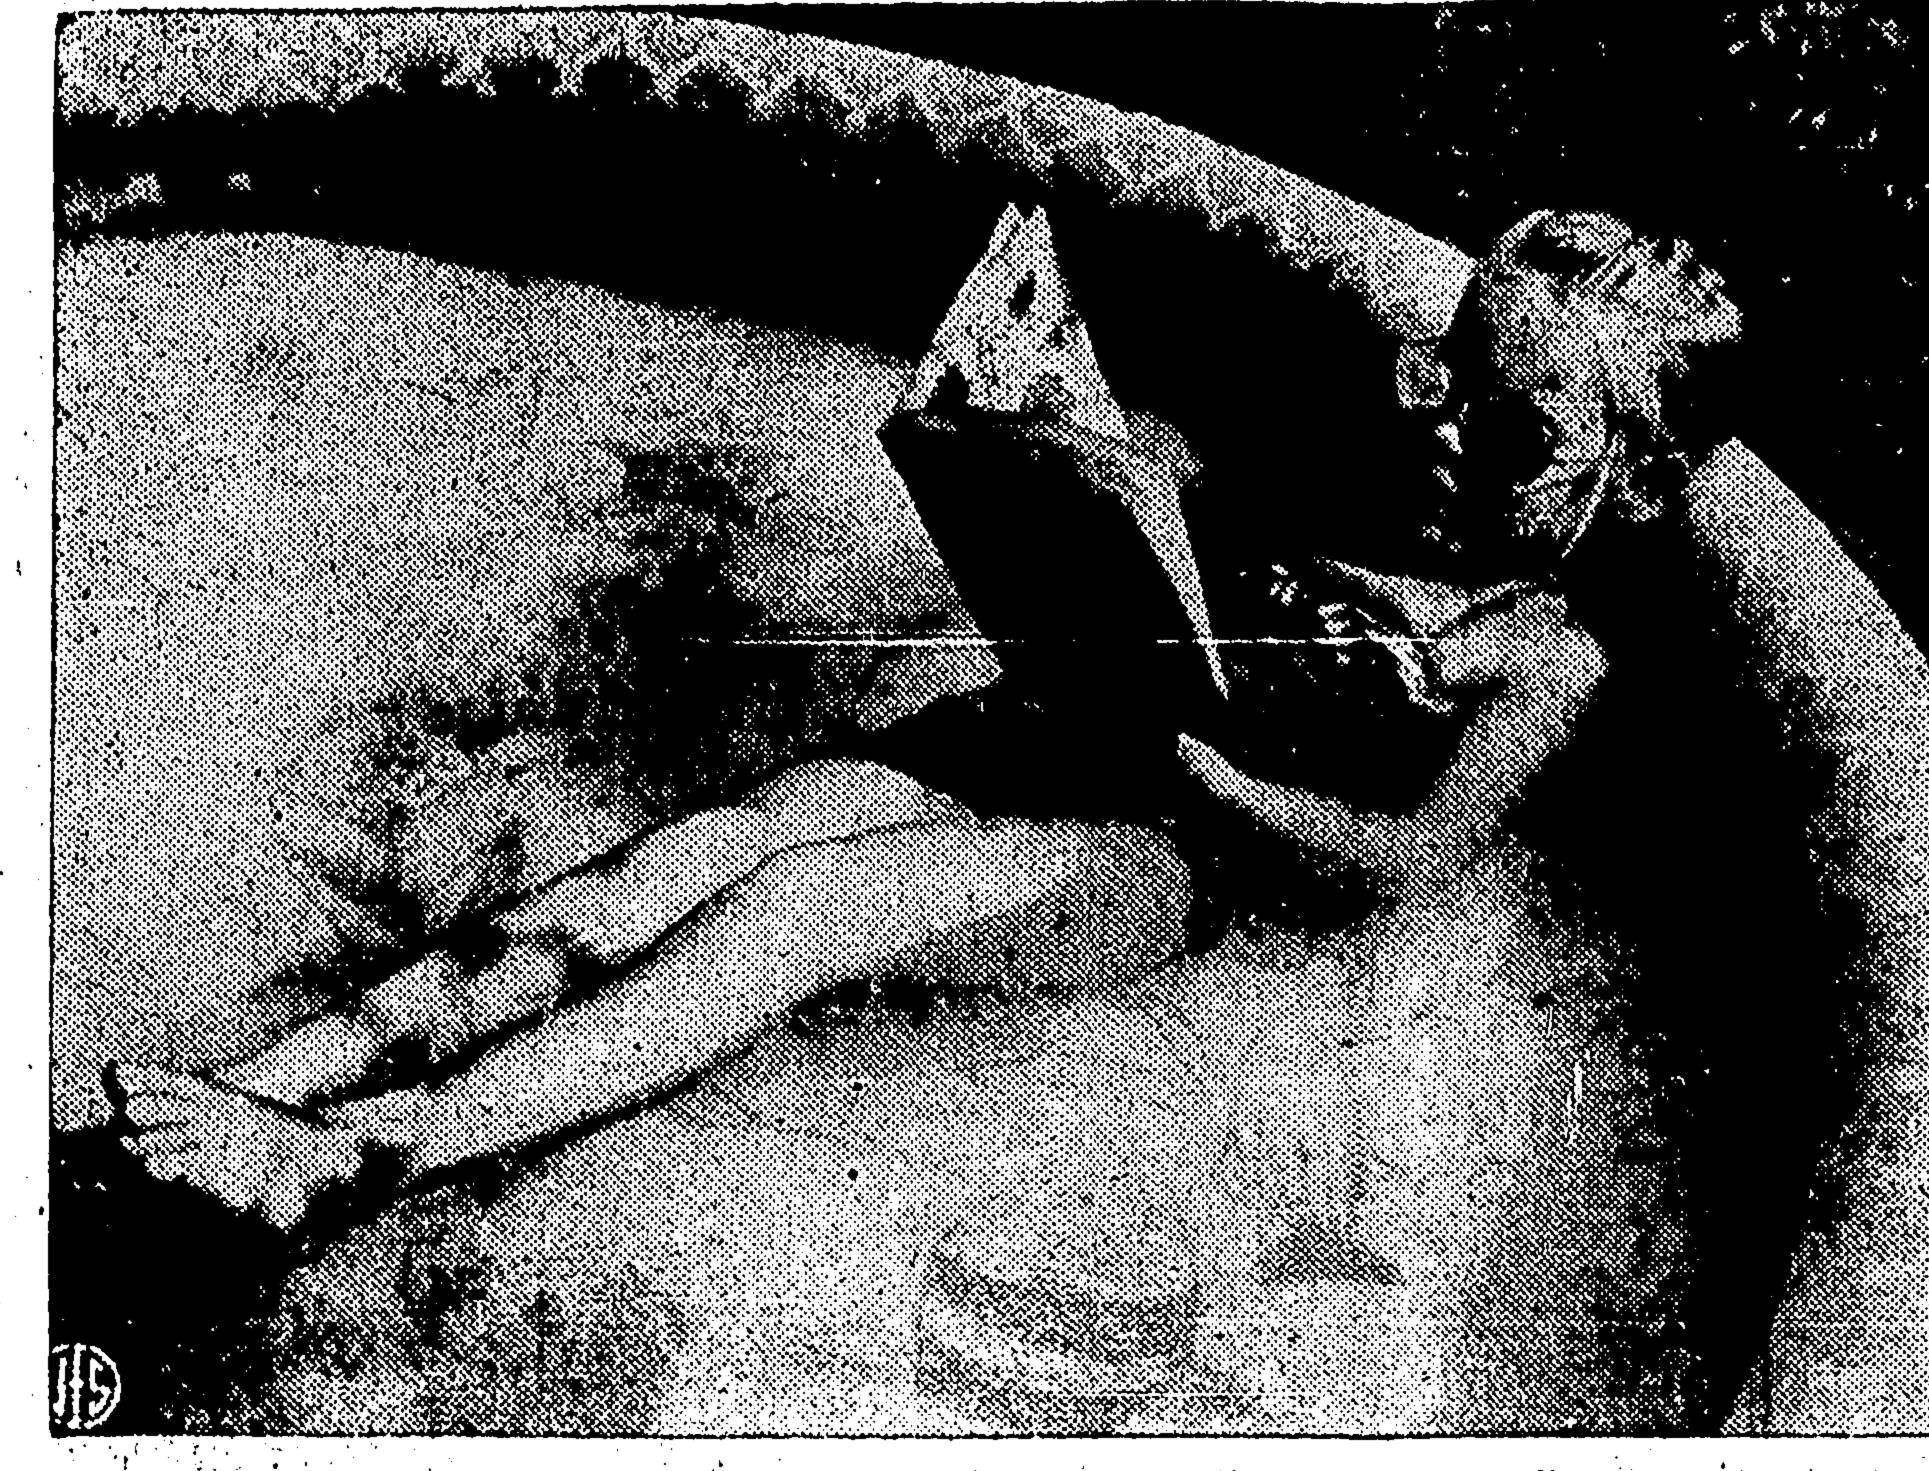

In all the better circles It's a social victory scored

To have everybody's friend . . . Captain Morgan Rum . . . on board !

with the finest rums in B.C.

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia

BLACK

AS SUMMER FADES - Summer was just about over and those school bells were ringing again, so Chris Higgins, 6, of Lewittown, N.Y. made the most of her final fling in her inflated backyard pool. Chris looks like a lady of leisure on the Riviera with those sunglasses and serious expression.

Two Men Jump To Safety As Tug Frank Baldwin and Chris Harvey in the first heat, he found still opposition from Baldwin and Hit by Ferry in Victoria Harbor

VICTORIA (CP)—Two men jumped from the sinking tug in Victoria's inner harbor Sunday after it was rammed by a ferry it had under tow.

The Island Tug and Barge ves-

Hood and seaman Harry Tebbs jumped into the water from the

The two were treated at Vic-

The Kalakala, because of it size, is turned around in the inner harbor by a tug on each trip. The tug apparently was swamped while making a sharp turn with the ferry.

PENTICTON (P)—Ogopogo, legendary monster supposed to in-VICTORIA () — Extreme fire habit Lake Okanagan, "appear-

Some of the observers said the creature appeared to have been Hunters will not be able to intoxicated because he was going

The sighting was reported at a lookout point early in the afternoon. Then Penticton-bound bus was stopped to let the passengers admire the scenery, when someno one spotted the "monster".

VICTORIA (P)—Newton Phillips Steacy, Social Crédit member of the legislature for North Vancouver, Friday was sworn in as Minister of Agriculture. Mr. Steacy's appointment fills the vacancy created last spring by the death of Ralph Chetwynd, MLA for Cariboo. Manager of Borden's Limited,

Mr. Steacy was first elected to the legislature in the general provincial election September,

The swearing in by Lieut.-Gov. Frank Ross took place in the speaker's office of the legislalive building.

The ceremony was attended by Premier Bennett, Attorney-Gen-Robert Bonner, Provincial Secretary Wesley Black, Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston, Health Minister Eric Martin and other government officials.

VANCOUVER (P) --- A tall, thin bandit, with "twisted front teeth" robbed the Hastings and Burrard branch of the Toronto-****************

FAST CARGO SAILINGS

Every Week leaving Vancouver

MONDAY dollvering eargo Pr. Rupert Thurs.

WEDNESDAY delivering cargo Priday a.m.

FRIDAY delivering cargo Monday a.m.

500 3rd Ave. West

Phone 5333 or 2320

- комоно _{др}ивоми коминацивски в развана вестольния в фарка в веребу по от оторого до того в разовать в да в разовать в

The teller said the man simulated a gun as he demanded cash | section.

came to Trail Wednesday from various parts of Canada loyalty to her majesty." and the United States, commending the city and its citizens for having achieved 1,000 successive days without a traffic fatality. It is the best record in British Columbia fer cities over 10,000 population.

Letters from Canada's prime minister, British Columbia's premier and the white house headed the list of distinguished commendations. The last fatality in Trail occurred December 15, 1954 when lice said the man was wearing Andy Paull of the North Ameria brown suit. It was not known can Indian Brotherhood says he whether he escaped on foot or will lead a delegation of his people to greet Queen Elizabeth In Ottawa this fall. He said the - Letter of praise | delegation will show "we take second place to no one in our > McGorran, 27-year-old father of three small children who was convicted of the armed holdup if a Chinese grocery store last January, had his 14-year jail sentence reduced to 10 years in appeal court Friday.

Mr. Justice Sidney Smith said the appeal judges had been impressed by the fact that McGorran was a first offender, by his good background and by the fact that he had served five years in the Royal Navy.

LOVELY ANNIE GARASSINI, 20, French-born Italian fashion model, beams triumphantly after being elected "Miss Italy" at the Rimini Beauty Pageant, She will represent Italy in the forthcoming "Miss World" contest in London. Annie was rejected from the Rimini contest last year because she had not yet acquired Italian citizenship,

CANADIAN LEGION Piggy Bank Guarantood $260

Tuesday, September 17 LEGION AUDITORIUM

Prince Rupert Daily News

BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Fine Defensive Play By Mr. Dale Shown Today In Setting Three NT

Mr. Dale is not the best player in the world in a technical sense, but he is one of the best partners. He action toward a change of stamight miss an obscure squeeze or communication play tus upwards, though several which Mr. Champion would make, but that sort of seeking to revert to village statechnical excellence pays off only on two or three tus. hands in a session. North dealer

Neither side vulnerable

NORTH

Mr. Champion

♥ A Q J 10 8

SOUTH

Mrs. Reen

♠. A 19 4

♦ 10 7 5 2

& K Q 8 5

Pass

trick run to her hand.

All Pass

card he could reasonably be ex-

held that card she almost certainly would have let the first trey of diamonds at trick one, two tricks in the suit. He could have cashed the king and pack

If Mr. Dale had played the

A Q J 9

₩ K 65

◆ K J 3

A J 9 2

 $-1 \cdot NT$

▲ K 6 5

♦ Λ 4

WEST Mr. Abel

♠ Q 9 8 6

Mr. Dale's partnership tactics pay off on more than half of the hands dealt. He always makes his partner feel at ease—a condition in which anyone plays his best game. He never tries to grab all the glory. He tries to think of the 26 defensive cards as a single unit and constantly looks for some way to promote winners in his partner's hand.

In today's deal if he had tried to beat the optimistic three no trump contract all by himself he would have taken exactly four tricks. The way he played it he won only three tricks in his own hand, but he made it possible for Mr. Abel to take two.

The opening lead was the six of diamonds and Mrs. Keen saw that her best chance was to play pected to hold was the queen of for the diamond suit to block so diamonds. There was the added she went right up with dummy's thought that if Mrs. Keen had ace. But Mr. Dale got out of the way. He played the jack.

Mrs. Keen then led a club from the board, Mr. Dale ducked and the queen won. Next came a heart finesse and Mr. Dale won with the king his side would have won only and cashed the king of dia-

Now, because he had the trey after getting in with the king of Janet Marie Hurlbert, 4½, of diamonds left instead of the hearts, but Mr. Abel could not was fatally injured when jack, he was able to lead through have afforded to overtake the struck by a truck at an inter- | Mrs. Keen's ten up to his part- | jack with his queen as that | ner's queen-nine. Thus the de- would have set up the ten in fenders won three diamonds, a the closed hand. heart and a club, for down one.

At the first trick Mr. Dale realized that his partner was extremely weak and the only face

Jesuits Urged To Shun Tobacco

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (A)—The Pope has urged members of the Society of Jesus, whose religous order was founded by St. Ignatius Loyola, to shun "superfluous" things—among them tobacco.

The pontiff received generals of the society, now the largest single religious order of the Roman Catholic church, in special audience four days ago. The text of his address—in which the pontiff urged the Jesuits to follow the austere rules of St. Ignatius—was released today.

The order is holding an extra-ordinary general congregation in Rome—the sixth since the Loyola's death in

The pontiff urged the Jesuits "climinate without ado and with courage all superfluous things. Among these must be included the use of tobacco, today so diffused and which men enjoy under various forme."

Families Escape

VANCOUVER (P) - Two families escaped by ladder from a fire in their home here Sunday. The two-storey wooden house was heavily damaged. Nearby buildings were scorched. Firemen said they thought the fire was caused by a eigaret smouldering in a chesterfield.

Quesnel Vote To Decide Village Status

will be asked Friday to vote on whether Quesnel should change its status from a village to a town as it is entitled to do under the new Municipal Act.

If ratepayers approve the proposal Quesnel will have the distinction of being one of the first B.C. communities to take centres holding city charges are Commission chairman A. V. Fraser said "Quesnel has outgrown its former status. If we are to secure the improvements. and service needed for a community of our size today we must have the broader powers allowed under the charter."

Village commissioners have already approved the steps which will lead to Quesnel becoming a town but their action must be ratified by the rateprayers.

Try Daily News Classified

HOLLYWOOD CAFE

OPEN From 5:30 p.m. to 3:30 a.m.

FOR THE BEST CHOW MEIN IN TOWN

TAKE SOME HOME Phone 6226

THRILLS!

7.15 p.m.

