THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION

The public schools of the Province again require the help of trained teachers who are not at present teaching.

Qualified ex-teachers who are free to do so can perform at this time a very important public service to the children of British Columbia by indicating that they will consider returning to teaching.

If you are willing to give some thought to this matter, please complete the information required on the following coupon and mail immediately to the Department of Education, Victoria, B.C. You will then receive information as to those areas requiring teachers.
