Rick Morley 90, Róbin Halliwell Robinson said today he has!

He added that he will go to the National Football League. Vancouver as soon as possible after Saturday's East-West Shrine game.

He said he is very happy with his new job, but has no plans yet. "I'll get out there first, look things over, and start some place. Then I'll go to work." Clem Crowe started out the 1958 season but was fired after three games. He was replaced by Dan Edwards, former all-star end with the Leos.

B.C. ended the schedule in last place, with a 3-13 record.

Spring said Lions received permission from the Bombers, who won the Grey Cup on Nov. 29, to talk to Robinson six or seven weeks ago and the final choice hand in naming his assistants. was made at a special directors meeting Thursday.
