Give her something she can wear

Men who understand women know that the gifts they like best are clothes and jewelry. Give her something to flatter her vanity, something to make her look pampered and expensive, and you'll be her favorite Santa.

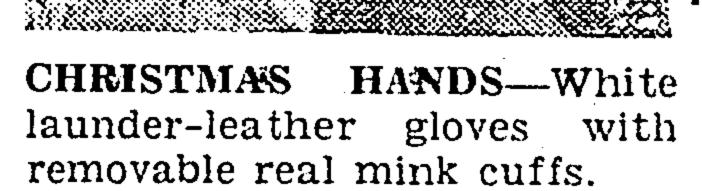

Every woman wants gay new wearables and accessories for the festivities of the holiday season, when every girl wants to look her best. If you know her well enough, nothing could top a gift certificate from her favorite shop, with instructions to buy the most gorgeous evening gown in the place, for that big date when you're taking her dancing.

If Mom has been feeling a little underprivileged, because of housework and taking are of the children, a lack black chiffon nightgown and negligee will restore her morale. And any woman on your list will welcome beautiful new costume jewelry, fine gloves or perfume in her own favorite

Men who are bashful about shopping for feminine fripperies will find that many department stores and specialty shops have special gift departments for men only these days. where expert gift counselors smooth the way for embarrassed

Yule stories, carols all in high fidelity

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN AP Newsfeatures Writer

If the sound of sleigh bells echoes clearer and louder over the snow-thatched rooftops this Christmas Eve, it's due no doubt to the fact that Santa and his reindeer will come crashing through the sound barrier via the medium of high fidelity recordings.

Ever since Gene Autry deserted his faithful horse "Cham-Orchestra joyously romp through pion" and took a lucrative ride Tchaikovsky's "The Nutcracker "Rudolph the Red-nosed Ballet" on a Mercury label and Reindeer," record companies Arthur Fiedler and the Boston mas songs, stories, carols and RCA Victor album.
