Eaton Sentenced To Hang July 16

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. (CP)—Gerald Edward Eaton, 51-year old ferry-boat operator, was sentenced Friday to be hanged July 16 at Oakalla prison farm for the murder of an eight-year old girl.

The 12 men of the B.C. Supreme Court jury deliberated two hours before finding Eaton guilty of murder.

Asked by Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson if he had any comment, Eaton replied:

"All I can say is that I am not guilty of murder."

Eaton was arrested last April 28 and charged with the bludgeon murder of little Carolynne Moore of nearby Langley. Her body was found behind a stump in a field eight miles from her home with severe head wounds on her head.

Eaton now has been twice convicted of her murder. His first conviction last year was thrown out when the B.C. appeal court ordered a new trial.

You don't have to drive 50 in a 50-mile-an-hour zone. If conditions are dangerous, speed is dangerous," cautions the Canadian Highway Safety Conference.

Vancouver Man Fined $25 After Mishap

John William Stuart of Vancouver was fined $25 and heard Stipendiary Magistrate H. F. Glassey recommend that his licence be suspended for six months when he appeared before Prince Rupert City Police Court on Saturday afternoon charged with driving a motor vehicle without due care and attention.

Two witnesses described seeing Stuart's car swerve out of control on Sixth Avenue East, hit the sidewalk near Hays Cove bridge and tip over. Neither noticed any obstruction in the road that could account for the accident.

The defendant, who had two passengers with him at the time of the accident, was told by Magistrate Glassey that he was lucky not to be at the court on a charge of manslaughter.

In evidence, Stuart said that he saw a dog and applied the brakes quickly. The right rear brake grabbed and he lost control of the car, he explained.

James R. Davidson, 18, of 22 Cow Bay, a passenger who was injured when the car turned over, has been discharged from hospital.

Death never takes a holiday but drivers and walkers have no responsibility to keep death busy, says the Canadian Highway Safety Conference.

Recipe for pedestrian death: jaywalk, ignore traffic signals, walk into the street behind a parked car.
