PROVINCE TO SPEND $22,000 ON GREY CUP CELEBRATIONS

VANCOUVER (P) --- British Columbia's Grey Cup committee will spend $22,000 on the province's contribution to Grey Cup celebrations in Toronto this year.

Alderman Frank Baker, committee chairman, said this is $3,000 more than was spent last year, but "we must show the East we're going to have a celebration worth coming to "see in 1958, including the Grey Cup game."

B.C.'s Centennial celebrations are in 1958, and Vancouver expects to have the Grey Cup game that year.
