STAMPEDERS SIGN FILCHOCK AS 1959 BACKFIELD COACH

CALGARY (CP)—Calgary Stampeders and Frank Filchock, both one-time colorful fixtures in western Canada football, have started the long trek back to the top.

The Western Interprovincial Football Union club announced Wednesday night that Filchock has been signed as 1959 backfield coach in a bid to revitalize the club's slumping

Filchock, whose trademarks are a large cigar and booming, jovial voice, returns to the big leagues after a year of exile in the Ontario Rugby Football Union where his Sarnia Golden Bears walked away with the league champion-

The Bears, guilded by Filchock's genius and some topnotch cuts from the Stampeders, lost only once in 10 league contests and a two-game playoff series. FIRED BY RIDERS

He had been fired last season by Saskatchewan Roughriders after they finished out of the playoffs despite a roster of excellent material. The management said he wasn't strict enough with the players.

The Stampeders last won the Grey Cup in 1948 when they invaded Toronto with chuckwagons and ten-gallon hats; turning the east-west final into a colorful spectacle. Since then their success has dwindled.
