Mr. Hanke passed away on November 3rd.

Wesley Loback passed away on November 2nd in Prince George where he and Mrs. Loback owned and operated the "House of Flowers" shop. They spent the summers in their summer home at Ootsa lake which they built on the old McLarry property, where they had their own landing field for their plane. After a Masonic funeral service in Prince George his remains were taken to the Washington State, where Mr. Loback had several relations and many large business interests.

On the 11th of November Fred Hawley was found to have died in his sleep by his son in their home on Burns Lake. Since his cludes party dress, jumper, wifes' death a few months ago, blouse, school dress, coat, hat, he has been unable to take an nightgown, robe, slip and interest in his work and was lonely as his family are married and have left this district except his son Fritz. They used to live across the lake at Grassyplains where the family had a trucking and lumbering business.

They were driven on the first part of their trip by Johnny and Jimmy Van Zanten, Teddy Kidd, Marjorie Smith and Charlene Curtis, as far as Clemretta. Gwen Van Zanten and Marjorie took them on to where the Houston road branches off from the Tahtsa Lake road where they were met by Roy Monger who took them the rest of the way. It was a three-day trip for the cattle.
