watching the filming of a South Pacific scene more intently than the usual visitor. And no wonder — it was Oscar Hammerstein II. The scene was a dramatic one in which Emile Debeque (Ros- over the production. sano Brazzi) turns down a pro- The scene I watched was reposal to spy on the Japanese markably faithful to the origwith Lieut. Joe Cable (John inal, which I had seen recently Kerr). Between takes of the long on the stage with Mary Martin scene, director Jose Logan came in her original role. over to confer with Hammer- "Yes, we haven't changed the with Logan and penned the ly- merstein said. "There are some rics to accompany Richard Rod- obvious things which you can gers' songs. He naturally has a do with movies but not on the movie, as he was making one MUCH THE SAME of his periodic visits to watch

TO FIT EVERY SIZE Regular Sizes .

2. Chubbies . . . 3. Teen Age . . .

HOLLYWOOD (A) -- The tall, nature man in the crew cut was story much, except to fit it into Hammerstein wrote the play the icnematic medium," Ham-

"It's pretty much the same thing we have done with the Wallace's Dept. Store other three films that have been 'speaking of the shows I did with things in the past that came out far differently

"But I don't think the studios, do that so much any more. When I they put out a lot of money for property they generally use

Of the three R and H musicals filmed so far, Hammerstein said he thought Oklahoma, and The King and I were well done. He,

What about the other three? "There have been no offers that I know of for them," he, said. "I have an idea that some day I may re-work Allegro. was always very fond of it, but somehow it missed in the second thing more with Me and Juliet and Pipe Dream. Why? Because, I hate them."

There is happy news in the fact that the team is getting be based on a book by C. Y. Lee, biggest festival of the arts. The Flower Drum Song. Ham-

Columbia flows 325 miles to its metists. outlet on the Pacific near Prince OF WIDE SCOPE

THE QUEEN, with Prince Philip scated on her left, reads the | The blading: speech from the throne opening Canada's 23rd Parliament. It was the first time in history that a sovereign had come to Canada to preside at the solemn, colorful occasion, (CP Photo)

Vancouver Arts Festival "No, I don't expect to do anying more with Me and Juliet Pine Dream Why? Because

By DAVID QUINTON

Canadian Press Staff Writer VANCOUVER (D-Plans are) busy on a new musical. It will nearing completion for Canada's merstein added that Rodgers is event, the Vancouver Festival of recovered enough from his re- the Arts will run for three weeks packed with entertainment the cent illness to start work on the during British Columbia's cen-Itennial year, starting July 19,

The event will combine the talents of some of the world's great-The Skeena River in British est musicians, artists and dra-

The festival is aiming at one unique feature: The assembling of talent from North America,

Europe and Asia. "We want to impress people that this is a sort of exhibition of the respective arts of many of rather than a dose of culture." known movie making countries. said Nicholas Goldschmidt, ar-

Vews

By AGNES H. NEAVE Daily News Correspondent and Veronica Hickey are back politan's bass-baritone George for six weeks under a doctor's list of singers taking part. Burns Lake.

Our phone has been very quiet festival. Watson homes.

Now that our line is not overcrowded we are hoping to have the J. Keefe family moved to our line, and a line installed east down the lakeshore to take in

I families, also the school. occasions have arisen when a jazz concerts will be given phone was urgently needed throughout the duration of the | down there, once when for severe bleeding. It would be Goldschmidt.

offices and places of work.

-34514 - 3rd Wast

generally aware of the festival. clubs. "The centennial year is so public seems surprised to hear there will be a period of intense musical, artistic and dramatic events," he said.

"But this festival is planned not for British Columbia alone. It is for the world to come and admire. We aim to rival the great festivals of Edinburgh and

40 FILM ENTRIES He said the international film; festival has already drawn 40 entries from 20 different nations, including South Africa and Java, apart from the well-

One Rhodesian movie producer wrote to say excellent films were available of native tribal danc-only a string of beads-around their waists--the committee is still pondering the offer.

The festival itself opens with performances of Mozart's opera FRANCOIS LAKE— Margaret Don Giovanni" with the Metroafter being away in Vancouver London of Montreal, heading the care. Both are feeling much bet- The festival quartet, which inter. They are moving from their cludes William Primrose, will reach at Colleymount to a home give three recitals, including the Margaret has just bought in first performance of a prize-wining Canadian composer's work, one of the major awards of the since Thursday when six sub-! A play, based on B.C. themes, \ scribers have been given a sep- has been commissioned from To-11 arate line to Burns Lake central, ronto playwright Lister Sinclair They are the Minger, Halcrow, and will be directed by Douglas \ Vallaan, Taylor, Stanton and Seale of England's Birmingham Repertory Theatre.

CANADIAN SOLDISTS The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra will perform under the batons of nationally and inter-1. inationally reputed conductors. the Loveseth, Jeffrey and other Soloists will include Glenn Gould | and Lois Marshall, Toronto, Maubreen Forrester, Montroal, and During the last month three Jon Vickers, Prince Albert, Sask.

O'Mearas had a fire and needed; "There's plenty of talent in help, then when Bruce McClure | Canada, but much of it needs a | was taken ill at school and when peg to hank itself upon. It needs little Kenny Rensby needed help to feel its wanted," said Mr.

of great help as most of the men | Peter Bennett, managing diare working in town and often rector of the Stratford, Ont., | need to get in touch with their | Shakespearean Festival, is administration director.

Canda's finest boot . . .

PEDWELL SHOES

here for early selling.

Wool shearling lined

Opposite Northern B.C. Power

"Squee Gee" crepe

sole calf leather

Black or

BLACKWOOD on L BRIDGE

BY EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Mr. Dale Considers the People As Well As the Cards in Biddina

Mr. Dale considered the people as well as the cards in bidding his hand today. He thought Miss Brash might have a pretty weak opening (which she did) and he also figured Mr. Muzzy's defense would be something less than brilliant. Hence he tried for a game with a bid of three spades after getting a raise from his partner, Mr. Abel, who has great faith in Mr. Dale's playing ability, went on to four.

East dealer Neither side vulnerable NORTH Miss Brash * 8 2 * A 7 6 5 3 4 J 10 9 2 ♦ A 10 9 8 b J 5 4

This is another deal to illustrate the fact that you cannot always afford to pick up all of the enemy's trumps when you, are trying to execute an elimination and throw-in play.

Pass

He might make the contract the end.

by eliminating the red suits from his hand and dummy and then throwing one of the opponents in with the second round of clubs. But the cards would have to be just right. That is, the opponent who won the second club lead would have to have started with no more than two clubs and no more than two trumps. Otherwise he would have a safe

At trick three Mr. Dale led a small diamond to the king. Miss Brash won with the ace and led back a diamond. Mr. Dale won and then cashed exactly two rounds of spades, playing the ace and king.

He cashed another diamond to strip out that suit and followed with the ace and another club. Miss Brash won the second club with the king and had nothing i leit but red cards. Her return was a diamond and Mr. Dale discarded his last club while ruffing on the board with the queen of

Mr. Muzzy led the jack of If he had picked up all of the hearts and Miss Brash won with outstanding trumps early in the Itistic and managing director of the ace. She returned the suit hand, Miss Brash would have and Mr. Dale won with the king, been at no disadvantage at all Ernest G. Ferrault, of the fes- Looking the hand over, Mr. Dale when she was in with the king tival's organizing committee, saw that he had a diamond los- of clubs. Mr. Dale would have said British Columbians are not er and probably two losers in had to ruff her diamond or heart return and lose another club at Matinee Saturday 2 - 4.15 p.m.

1 SATURDAY Oct. 18-8:30 p.m.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION

Ladies' Professional Wrestling Corrine Jackson vs. Lucille Martin THE LONG-AWAITED GRUDGE MATCH!

MAIN EVENT Tarzan Potvin Clairo Robinson

SEMI-FINAL Bill Fletcher 1.00 Therrien

Admission: Adult $1.75 and $1.25 Children $1.25 and 75c

Tickets at Civic Centre - Esquire Shop - Grotte Cigar Store

Prince Rupert Daily News Friday, October 18, 1957

BURRE SUPPLIES

For The HOME ELECTRICIAN

Wiring Supplies as Required with Technical Information on How To Do It!

RUPERT RADIO & ELECTRIC

313 - 3rd Avenue

Phone 4236

The medals on this famous Label

were won in

is truly delightful

"This advertisement is not published by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia".

Available in 261 oz. and 134 oz. Bottles.

Sherriff's Sale

In the Supreme Court of British Columbia

In the Matter of the "Execution Act", Being Chapter 114, R.S.B.C. 1948, and Amendments Thereto, between Philpott Evitt and Company Limited, Plaintiff (Judgment Creditor), and Mayhew's Cash & Carry, Defendant (Judgment Debtor).

Under and by virtue of an order issued out of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, Prince Rupert Registry, dated the 4th day of October, 1957, made by Order of His Honour Judge W. O. Fulton in an action wherein Philpott Evitt and Company Limited is Plaintiff (Judgment Creditor) and Mayhew's Cash & Carry is Defendant Judgment Debtor, I will offer for sale by public auction at my office, Court House, Prince Rupert, British Columbia, on Wednesday, the 30th day of October, 1957, at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon, all the interest of the said Mayhew's Cash & Carry in and to the following described lands and premises: That parcel or tract of land situate in the Village of New Hazelton commonly known as Lots 18 & 19, Block 121, Section 2, Townsite of New Hazelton, Map 968.

The Plaintiff's Judgment against the Defendant is for $1,121.48 and was registered the 15th day of March, 1957.

Torms of Sale: Cash.

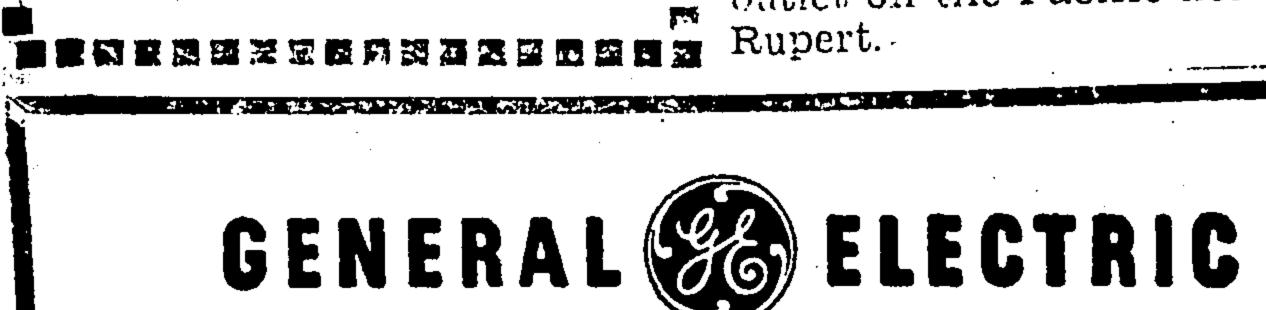

Scaled tenders may be submitted by mail. Highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

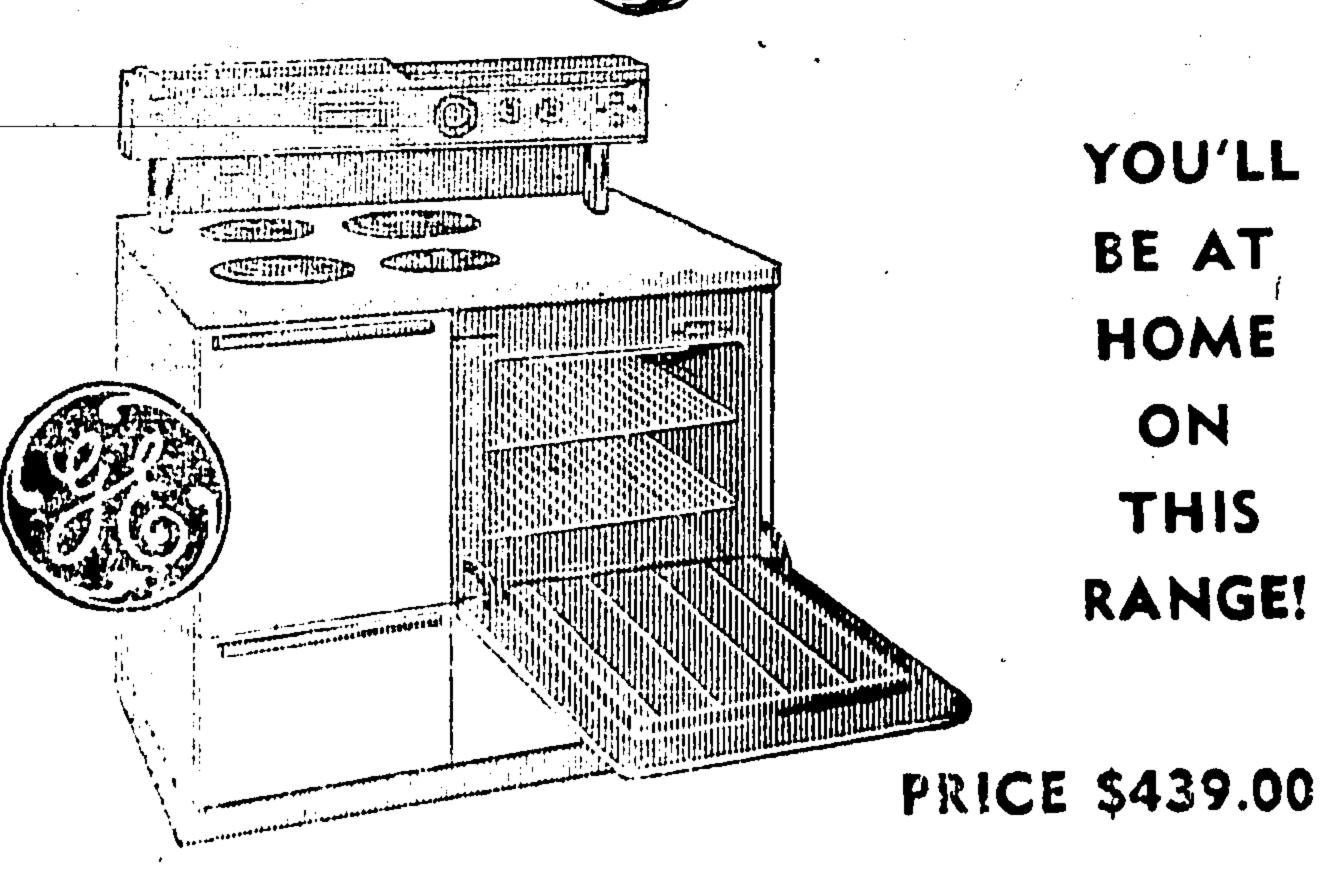

> Earl J. Doan, Sheriff of the County of Prince Rupert.

> > e enione e e e

Shariff's Office, Court House,

Prince Ruperl, B.C., October 11th, 1957.

HOME RANGE!

IT IS ONE OF THE BEST EVER PRODUCED BY GENERAL ELECTRIC WITH CONVENIENT TERMS ARRANGED

PHONE 3014

NOW!

YOU CAN MAKE THE DEAL THAT YOU HAVE ALWAYS DREAMED ABOUT!

WE ARE CLEARING OUR

1957 STOCK AT TREMENDOUS

COME IN AND WRITE YOUR OWN DEAL

Very Generous Trade

WE ALSO HAVE A WIDE VARIETY OF CLEAN LATE MODEL USED CARS AT REDUCED PRICES

BOB PARKER LTD

2222 - SALES OFFICES - 2348 2348 - EVENINGS - 4792 The North Country's Bost Deal"

Your Ford-Edsel Dealer

"The North Country's Higgest Dealer with

SAVINGS

Allowances