Prince Rupert Dailu Neus

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port -- And Key to the Great Northwest

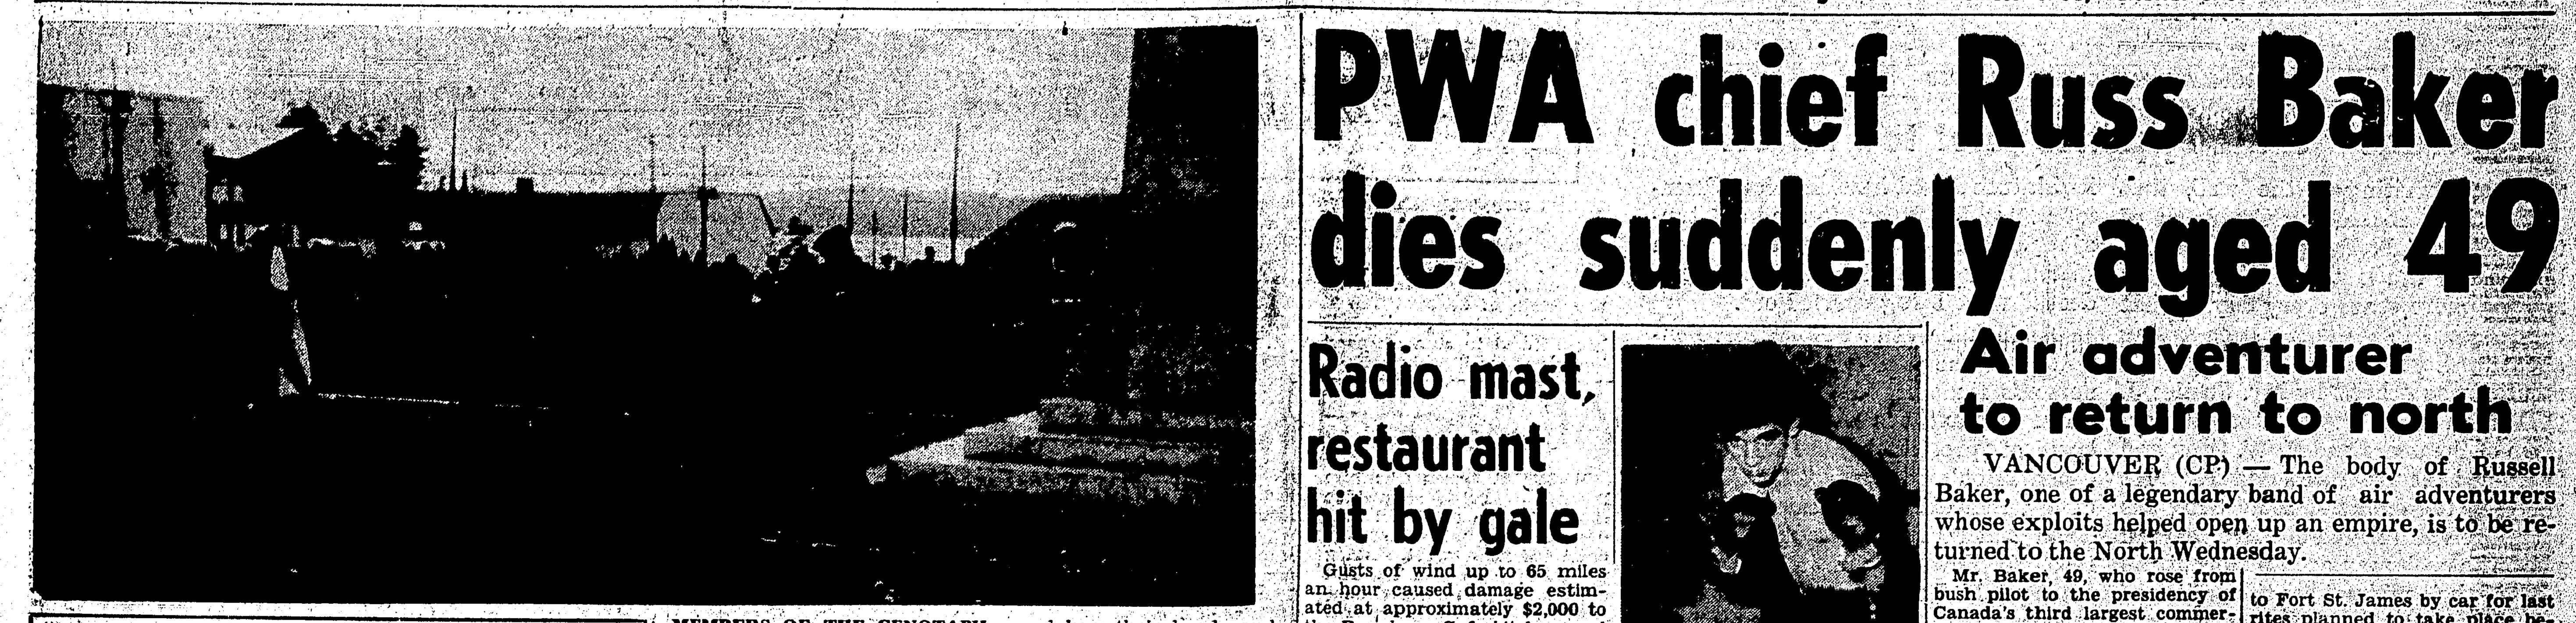

VOL. XLVII, No. 226

Telephone 6767

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1958

Night Calls—Business 6768, Editorial 6769

PRICE TEN CENTS

into Briggs charges

VICTORIA (CP)—H. Lee Briggs, the civil servant who rocked British Columbia last week with a four-round broadside at the provincial government, says he wants nothing to do with politics.

The 55-year-old Manitoba-

B.C. Electric Company; an

Wenner-Gren interests for the

"The time has now come

it meets in January.

respassers

Police told Magistrate E. T.

from the wheel of a boxour and license was under suspension.

Victor Lloyd Welch of

Eleventh Avenue Enst was fined ment sentenced to eight days in Poolo on October 0 and was re-l

Sarah Dudoward, 78, died at

Widow dies

Hearned here today.

Lorlok Dudoward in 1956.

the CNR grounds.

by the government with

Mr. Briigs, fired from his $25,-1-000-a-year post as general man- day he agrees with Mr. Briggs' oger of the British Columbia allegation. Power Commission, said today in still another statement: born power chief followed his

"I have no political ambi- first statement up with three of Vancouver. tions whatsoever and will not more criticizing the high ofconsent to run for public of- fices held by former finance fice. My personality and minister Einar M. Gunderson; tastes are not suited to that alleging illegal earnings by the calling."

He said he is anxious to re- criticizing arrangements made tire into the background. NOT LIKELY

It appeared unlikely he would development of Northern B.C. be able to do so as the CCF Mr. Briggs was fired by the party took up his charges power commission Friday. against the Social Credit gov- had said that if he lost his job a rock cut on the main Easternment with a call for a full he would stump the province legislative investigation. Said CCF Leader-Robert Stra- people.

Today he said:

line unless me to establish clearly that kind or the there is a strong principle in-|course of action which hereafter|

I propose to follow. Mr. Briggs laid his job on the | "Except to defend my contenline with his first statement last | tions, which I am prepared to Wednesday, which accused Pre- do to the utmost, I am most anmier Bennett and his govern- kious from this point on to ment of juggling commission fi- withdraw entirely into the backnances to fulfill a political ground. I ask and indeed beg promise to have B.C. free of debt of the members of the press ar others that they consider my

A former senior executive of part of this distasteful job as the power commission supported done and finished." this claim. J. A. Christie, who | Mr. Stratchan said it is obv resigned three months ago as ous "Premier Bennett's chenanthe commission's financial man-ligan was too much for ager, said in an interview Satur- Briggs professional ethics."

Laurie resigns

Resignation of Enuric as general-secretary of committee.

Mrs. Laurie is resigning because of ill health. Her resignation is effective January 1.

ident Morris Wayman said that perty. the association's personnel committee, headed by A. P. Crawley, will be seeking a new executive Applewhalte that the two acsperetary for the association preferably to start January 1 Mr. Wayman said it was with had lit a small fire with it, on "deep regret that the association | accepts Mrs. Laurie's resigna-was fined $25 costs, or in do-Mrs. Laurie "saw the Centre! built up as the centre of recrontional activity of the citizens of Prince Rupert. She attracted volunteer leaders and community support to a nev 1$20, costs or in default of pay-i high level."

Mr. Wayman said that while she was gonaral socretary the bank debt of the association was reduced from $11,500 $2,500 with the probability that the association will be debt free. by the end of the 1958-59 pro-Krum yoar.

[[TESTERNATION | TESTERNATION | TES DRUGS LTD.

MEMBERS OF THE CENOTAPH guard bow their heads and Canadian Legion Branch 27 and military personnel stand at attention observing the two minute silence at the Remembrance | Forest Services radio tower at Day services on the provincial court house grounds last Tuesday. More than 900 city residents attended the service. -Photo by Gladys Baldwin.

None seriously hurt in CPR train mishap

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Dominion, one CPR's trans-continental trains struck a big, wet mud and rock slide early Sunday near Haig, 90 miles east damaging dishwashing equip-

Four diesel units and two of he 23 cars, were derailed. Twenty people were injured, three being taken to hospital at last car, which was not derailed. Chilliwack for treatment.

The railway said none The derailment occurred a 6:20 a.m. Sunday as the west-He bound Dominion moved through carrying his message to the lieutenant - Governor Bastedo of Saskatchewan and Mrs. Bastedo who were en route FALL DOWN BANK. Vancouver to be guests of Mrs. L. Stacey funeral held

Funeral was held Saturday at Ferguson Funeral Home for Mrs. Louise Stacey of 1447 Eighth Avenue East who died Monday in Vancouver at the age of 61 Rev. Dr. R. W. K. Elliott officiated at the service. Hymns sung were "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Nearer My God to Thee." He said he will move for establishment of a special com-Dallyn, Lee Intermela, Alec Mac-| precaution against explosion, his boat, the former Lucky 13 mittee of the legislature to ni-1 vestigate the whole affair when Farlanc, Arthur Instance, Barrie then clambered up to the track. was discovered swamped at Cow them, voting delegates, jammed Scollon and John Pollard. view Cemetery.

"My wife," he said, "was foot radio masts located behind thrown clean out of bed and I the court house. was thrown up against the He said that temporary reheadboard, but our coach was pairs were made within half an not derailed."

lowed by a terrific bang.

Lieutenant - Governor Frank

Mr. Bastedo said he first heard a screech of brakes fol-

The four diesel units at the head of the train plowed through about 40 feet of slide before leaving the track and plunging 50 feet down a tree-studded embankment. They came to rest 150 feet above the swirling Fraser River.

The 17th coach, a sleeper, and the 18th, a dome car, left the track but did not go over the embankment.

The 35-year-old fireman, John MacMillan, said it was all over like three weeks." Neither he nor engineman Gordon Folkerson morning. was injured. They switched off the fuel lead and boilers as a Buses brought the stranded Bay. Interment followed in the Fair- passengers to Vancouver. The train carried 142 passengers.

fined $25 Kenneth Young winner the Prince Rupert Civic Centre association was announced today by the association's executive cach fined $25, costs or in default of payment sentenced to 21 days in Jall when I and a half of driving.

eused took the waste packing. Edward and Highway 16.

Also in police court Saturday. Jules Therrien of Prince Rupert fault of payment sentenced to 21 as co-pilot. The McClary's also Randolph Baldwin, Austin; notor vehicle while his drivers services entry from Air Cadet ald, Nash; R. MacIntyro. | Squadron 559, a Junior Cham- | Cazes, course not completed. ber of Commerce team of R. R. | Whiteley and Paul Ilibbert.

The McClary's beat out W. C. jull after he was found guilty by Hankinson and navigator Mrs. Michael Wayman, David Yule, Magistrate Applewhalte of fail- Hankinson, but both Rotary braking test; Daniel Delancy, ing to yield the right-of-way at club entries lost no points on H. G. Bird, Morris Donne, rethe braking test nor did the versing test; D. F. Baldwin and through defence counsel W. N. mour and Ray Oakle, manded on several times after-[starting and braking, reversing] and a slalom tost for which, with CAIRO (m-The Sudan radio); their time error ever the total announced today the Sudanese nually by the firemen for the father, Prederick Tyrone Powcomplete course, save them a army commander-in-chief, Gon. Balvation Army. Practically all or, who died on a Hollywood of 1967, he said. total point loss on which results Ibrahim Abbond, has selved the toys so far received have movie set in 1931. Power was

Kenneth Young, with Garth Christopher Mair, Volkswagen; thy pleaded guilty in city police Decker as navigator won the David Yule, Michael Wayman; court Saturday morning to a Road Safety club's second in W. C. Hankiuson, Mrs. Hankincharge of trespassing on Cana- strumental rally yesterday with son, Metcor; and Henry Seppa the swamped vessel was raised the swamped vessel was raised the swamped vessel was raised to the swamped v Civic Centre association pres- dian National Railways pro- a time error of only three sec- and Rober Armstrong Jr., Volks- and no sign of him found a line found onds in more than an hour wagen (tied); R. R. Whiteley, search was instigated. Dragging, Paul Hibbert, Buick; Nineteen cars took part in the Comadina, S. Wingham, Ford; rally which covered a 40.3 mile- Carl Ellingson, I. Ellingson, Ply- Bryant's body. course starting at Scal Cove, mouth and T. Dorash, W. Dorthrough the city out to Portlash, Pontlas; James Arsensau and A. N. Other, Plymouth; Placing second in the rally Hutchinson, L. Gibbons, Buick; was Norman McClary of the William Seymour, Raymone Rotary club with Mrs. McClary Oakie, Chrysler; Henry Trudeau, placed first in the team com- McLeocl, J. Murdock, Volkspolitinon which, included an-| wagen; R. Helland, B. McLeod, other Rotary team, an armed Pontiac; M. Hebden, B. McDon-

Officials at the various check points were:

Leslie Cawthorne, G. Morris, [Drivers were also tested on and W. Chesser, slatem race.

power in a coup d'etat.

A provincial government cari Digby Island Radio station repicked them up at Yale and ported a half-inch rainfall in brought them here. death

by dale

Gusts of wind up to 65 miles an hour caused damage estimated at approximately $2,000 to the Broadway Cafe kitchen and escaped serious injury after winds blew the chimney over and a small portion of it crashed through the ceiling it was re-

The cook received minor injuries when he was hit on the standing in another part of the Pieces of brick, plaster and wood came through the ceiling

ment, sinks and tables, a spokes-

The cafe will be closed for

R. W. Lewis, radio technician

for the B.C. Forest service said that about $200 damage was caused to one of the three 65

kitchen escaped uninjured.

shoulder with a piece of brick.

about 9 o'clock last night.

ported today.

man said

Ross of B.C. The Bastedos were about two weeks until necessary not injured. They were in the repairs can be made.

fisherman An inquest will be begun tonight into the death of wellknown Port Simpson fisherman Robert William Bryant, whose in a "few seconds that seemed body was found in the water) near Cow Bay floats Saturday

Mr. Bryant, 49; became the object of a search Friday when Trail by election.

treated for tuberculosis in var- tion's blessing. ious Indian hospitals including Miller Bay hospital from 1949 to Canadian Fishing Company vention that the eyes of the officials said that he had just people of Canada focused on the acquired the Lucky 13 this past by-election, called to fill the seat ed of the people, said Mr. Fin- way 16, RCMP at Port Edward

It is reported that he arrived of convicted conspirator Robert of corruption in government here from Port Simpson with his Sommers, former lands and forvessel Thursday. Friday, when Stove operations Saturday morning | resulted in the finding of Mr. | With

The inquest will be before 以题 Coroner George E. Dawes at Fer- | 微数 guson Funeral Home at 7:30 to- Maria Maria night. Members of the jury to the was a fine of the first to the first d be sworn in are: Roger Jarvis, Mill Harold Leslie Hampton, Fred- | Ellipse G crick Busby, William Scuby, M. C. Mr. Bryant is survived by his | widow Cora and three children | William

Cocilla, Ronald and Darlone.

repair toys

Virofightors of the city fire do- | Saturday by a heart attack at Wolch plouded not gullty Air Ordet entry of William Sey-Angela Newbury, equipment test: partment announced today that the height of a duelling scene Mr. and Mrs. Donnis Winslow Howard LaForgo and O. F. Symos on a movie set in Madrid, died are to supervise the repair of an hour later. He was 48. Fow-| children's toys for Christmas. | or's death was a tragle dup-The project is undertaken an- | leiate of that of his actor boon repaired. Placing of the entries with The government radio in Khar- Toys may be left at the fire omen and Sheba" with Ital- in the world, averaging more Port Simpson Saturday it was drivers, navigators and make of town, the Sudanese capital, hall or at Shell Oil service in actress Gina kellobrigida. | than 56 accidents a year for car in that order are as follows: broadcast a declaration in the station. If owners cannot bring In the role of Solomon, Power | 100,000 population, with motor Kennoth Young, Carth Dock- name of Abboud promising to the toys in, a uniformed fire- showed up on the set for a vehicle accidents averaging 19.5 decensed by her husband Fred- er, Chev: Norman McClary and do his best to achieve good re- man will collect them. Owners | duelling scene with George | for each 100,000 persons, Mrs. McClary: Chov: Harry Hol- Intions with Prosident Nassor's are asked to call 2211 for help | Sanders, 52-year-old movie | D.C.'s rate is the highest in in this direction.

CIOS SUCCEDIVICOS SUCCEDIVINA

was necessary for 139-pound Prince Rupert boxer Dick Bury to dispose of his opponent Friday night at a boxing fight card in Terrace. Bury knocked out "Hurricane" Lindsay of Kitimat in 10 seconds of the first round of their scheduled three-round bout. Rupert heavyweight Al Gottschling, 187 pounds scored another win for this city when he won a split decision over 179-pound fighters. Len Shankel and PWA DC-3. respec- hoof airport.

AiredVenturer to return to north

VANCOUVER (CP) — The body of Russell Baker, one of a legendary band of air adventurers whose exploits helped open up an empire, is to be returned to the North Wednesday. Mr. Baker, 49, who rose from bush pilot to the presidency of to Fort St. James by car for last Canada's third largest commer- rites planned to take place becial air company, Pacific West- tween 1:30 and 2 p.m.

Vancouver home Saturday of a stone's throw from government heart attack. wharf at Fort St. James, the Funeral services will be held here at 11 a.m. Tuesday from Christ Church Anglican cathedral but mass will be celebrated today at Holy Rosary. Roman Catholic cathedral. Mr. Baker was not a Cathol but during his flying days the north he formed a great respect for that faith and made friends among its priests and Six pilots of PWA which Mr. operation will stand honor the body.

lone plot at northerly Fort St. an ancient Fokker. James, 100 miles northwest of His courage and skill were Prince George Wednesday after-legend. He demonstrated it in line business from a base at wan, Manitoba, Ontario and Fort St. James in 1937. He will be buried on his own He logged more than 15 000 property overlooking resort- flying hours in his colorful skirted Stuart Lake. The body career. will be flown to Vanderhoof 50 Wally Weinberger of Kitimat. | miles south of Fort St. James, less staries of a dynamic career Two other Prince Rupert Wednesday morning aboard a of flying in Canada. Walter Oskey, lost split decis- |- It will be the first time a DC-3 ions to Carl Santosi and Len has landed at the small Vander- in his panelled executive office.

The funeral party will travel spot where he tied up his first aircraft, a de Havilland Fox-The Roman Catholic priest at the "Fort," whom Russ Baker flew on missionary errands when he was the owner and sole employee of PWA's forerunner, Central B.C. Airways, will conduct the burial service. About 20 relatives and close Baker built from a single plane friends are expected to fly from northland service to a 65-plane Vancouver in the aircraft with guard at the funeral Tuesday. Mr. Baker, a native of Winni-Six mainline pilots will act as peg, was barnstorming at the lage of 16. In 1928 he flew the . His body will be buried in a first airmail out of Winnipeg in northern B.C., Yukon, Northwest Mr. Baker started in the air-| Territories, Alberta, Saskatche-

Mr. Baker left behind count-He was equally at home in the cold cockpit of a tiny plane or Many claimed Russ Baker did the impossible with planes. He flew "by the seat of his pants" lover uncharted and nearly virgin territory, and learned the hard way what it meant to be a bush pilot.

He won the United States air medal, with a citation signed by former President Harry Truman, for "exceptional daring and pilotage ability" in rescuing 24 U.S. air force personnel from a crash involving three aircraft in a tiny valley near Watson Lake in the Yukon.

Tories, Liberals, CCF

TRAIL (CP)—Ald. Alex Brokenshire of Trail as nominated by acclamation Saturday to represent Progressive Conservatives, in the Dec. 15 Rossland-

More than 200 persons, 180 of ests minister. the Canadian Legion Hall to see A fisherman all his life, Mr. the 41-year-old father of four, a Bryant had taken up fishing widower since the death of his again this summer after being | wife last year, get the conven-

Deane Finlayson, provincial leader, told the nominating con-

pick Trail candidates

"In this district alone." he added, "a jury of more than tence the provincial government, which is on trial.

"When the Social Credit candidate is elected, it will be the people vs. the government that has broken faith." made vacant by the resignation layson is whether they approve reported today.

Rossland-Trail Liberal Assocation Saturday picked Dr. M. E. Mike Krause of Trail to repre- on the slippery surface of the sent the party in the byelection. road and collided with a car Alderman F. E. E. Buddy De- driven by Arnold Assman of 617 vito, 38, of Trail, was named Eighth Avonue East, RCMP said. Friday night to represent the CCF party in the by-election. He defeated school teacher said.

Kon Gaylol of Fruitvalo in a straight 'two-way fight' Percy Berry of Rossland named from the floor but with- at the time of the accident. drew his nomination.

VANCOUVER (CP)---More than 5.000 volticle drivers' licenees have been suspended in B.C. this year, Attorney-General Robert Bonnor said Friday.

Those figures are much higher than those for the same period

Mr. Bonner said Canada's genhere for the filming of "Sol- | eral accident rate is the highest | TITES

15,000 will try, judge and sen- $2,000 damage in two mishaps

A total of $1,200 damage was caused to two city motorist's cars at 2 p.m. Friday when they collided head-on about one mile The main question to be ask- east of Prince Rupert on high-

Mrs. D. B. Simpson of #1518 Second Avenue West lost control of her vehicle after skidding There were no injuries and no charges are pending ROMP Mrs. Simpson was heading to after Prince Rupert and Mr. Assman was was travelling to Port Edward Samuel Elford, 1322 Beach place, escaped injury when his car left the read near Galloway Rapids bridge Saturday and rolled into the bush 35 feet down. Damage of $800 was caused to

The car went into a skid making a right hand turn two miles east of the bridge.

Chalo warning in offect. Intermittent rain today and Tuesday except mainland inlets. Milder. Winds southonst 40 shifting to south 30 Tuesday morning. Low tonight and high Tuesday 40 and 45.

Tuosday, Nov. 18; 1958; (Pacific Standard Time) Jiigh 07:10 IR. Front 10:11

|Canada, ho said.