Operetta production scheduled to aid pool, retarded children

A musical treat for young and old is in store for Prince Rupert audiences on April 11 and 12 when Phyllis Hankinson and Buddy Taft unite their young singing and dancing students to present as a "benefit show," the delightful operetta, "The Maid and the Golden Slipper." The story of the two-act operetta by Claude Davis Richardson is taken from the fairy tale "Cinderella," and has a cast of eight principals with more than 40 lords, ladies and fairies in the charuses. All proceeds from the one and a half hour producition goes towards the Civic Centre swimming pool and the Prince Rupert Retarded Children's school, it was gannounced.

Acting director is W. A. Simpson and pianist is Mrs. Floyd Eby.

The shows, to be staged in the Centre's auditorium at 8 p.m. on both nights, will be a vision of fairyland fan-A tasy in colorful costumes and settings.
