On Wednesday we finally held the swim meet previously arranged to be held on Youth Day during Centennial Week. Approximately 50 participants entered the various events-with points given to the winners, leading towards trophies. Life guards Nelson Kinney and Derek Allen gave a diving display after which the trophies were awarded. Douglas Small, having the highest score of points, was awarded the Centennial Grand Trophy. Jeanne Richardson's lovely swimming style won her the rophy. The Diving trophy went to Bill Feilding who showed promise with his determined efforts in swimming as well as diving.

Elizabeth Taylor is coming out of mourning over the death of Mike Todd. She is often dating Arthur Loew Jr., scion of the show business family and a friend since her early years at MGM. And Liz has indicated she will be available for film roles that appeal to her.

"After Todd's death, she didn't care if she worked or not," said Richard Brooks, who directed her "Cat On a Hot Tin Roof." "She finished the picture only because Mike was so hepped up on it. Now she wants to work some more." Audrey Hepburn is not worried about being directed by husband Mel Ferrer for the first time in 'Green Mansions." After all, she argues, they have appeared together in a movie (War and Peace), on the stage (Ondine) and on TV (Mayerling).

"Marriage is a pretty complex relationship," she says. "If Mel and I can live together, we certainly ought to be able to work together." GARY SPEAKS OF POP Crosby's comment re Papa Bing's TV deal with ABC: I understand he makes some films for them and then they give him the network." Gary wants no part of a series for himself, favors guest shows only. Alan Ladd turned down a TV series for his son, David, who drew rave notices for "The Proud.

Rebel." He doesn't want the lad to work that hard. Gregory Peck finishes "Pork, thop Hill' and hits the road to xploit his other production,
