Formula Development Helps Stimulate HAIR GROWTH When Hair Loss is Due

2-DAY TEST SIZE BOTTLE Send Today!

Toronto: Developed by doctors, new formula has been l found to help stimulate hair growth. Many persons suffer hair loss due to poor scalp condition. Cleansing treatment, before applying the formula results in I greater stimulation of hair growth. It has been found that hair folicles plugged with sebum-oil and dirt do not allow hair to grow normally, encouraging dandruff and loss of hair as well as itchy scalp. Thus daily scalp cleansing sollowed by application of the new formula gives superior results for the hair and scalp. This new formula gives superior results for the hair and scalp. This new formula is manufactured by Dermal Research and supplied as "X-200" for a easy application to the scalp at home. "X-200" Doctors' discovery now accepted internationally-another Canadian (
