This is another in a series of reviews by local readers of books obtainable in the Prince Rupert Public Library. The books will be reviewed every week for the information of the reading public in an effort to stimulate interest in the Public Library, located in the Civic Centre.

"A WOMAN DOCTOR LOOKS AT LOVE AND LIFE"

By DR. MARIAN HILLIARD Reviewed by Doris Muir

Doctor Marian Hilliard, chief of gynecology and obstetrics at the Women's Harris, former member of the New Westminster on Saturday. College hospital in Toronto has written "A Woman Doctor Looks at Love and regiment said here today.

Cars from all over the prov- at Room 18, the Besner Block. Life." It is quite an undertaking for a busy doctor who operates every morning, the Regiment are expected to delivers about 40 babies a month and sees a stream of patients in her office long which commemorates the fam-after darkness has fallen. groaning responsibility and the are as much a part of it's perture of the Melfa river. speeches and her university ad- for pride in himself. dress has been an annual affair. Fear is another subject dealt age and faith.

to advise and sympathize with are born with but two, fear of that of easing the burden o all women, which she does with loud noise and the fear of sud- women of all ages. an amazing insight into their den release of support. foibles and peculiarities.

observes, "have the opportunity, the personality and the ability sympathy and understanding -rare in medicine—of treating to love. than just the health."

The suggestions put forth in the chapter on "What should I tell my children", are incisive and informative on such complex and at times bewildering problems as advising, caring for and teaching children from infancy on through adolescence.

regularly.

my upstart children'."

Nor are the husbands forgot_er guard; Mrs. James Hyndman, ten in this book. Men will be in complete agree- pianist. ment with the opinion that a The OORP third annual "Spag-cult than a woman's, full of 21.

"Obstetricians," Dr. Hilliard ones that defeat us, strangling Love and Life", with warmt.

hand is full of disabilities that you did.

be adjusted to with humor, cour-

Doctor Hilliard's 25 years of with by Dr. Hilliard. Most fears, Ostensibly, this book was practice thoroughly qualifies her she feels, are acquired—since we written with one object in view.

This is certainly accomplished The acquired fears are the in "A Women Doctor Looks at plus a delightful sense of humor, it illegal for the West German the whole life of a patient rather | Fear of old age, on the other | If you read it, you will be gla'd press to report defamatory news

Mrs. Louis Gastaldini new royal lady of OORP

held its annual meeting at the Gurvich.

self become flabby, unlike the royal lady; Miss Adeline Mile-committee. man next door, who exercised wski, loyal lady; Mrs. Omar Tweed, lecturing lady; Mrs. | Mrs. Fedoruk. "'Slouched in this position,' James Flaten, secretary; Mrs. the father told his son loftily, Robert Currie, treasurer; Mrs. 'I am able to devote all my Wilfred McLean, chaplain; Mrs. strength to keeping my brain Donald Wanamaker, conduct_ limber so that I can deal with ress; Mrs. J. R. Harris, inner guard; Mrs. G. H. Baldwin, out-

trustee and Mrs George Brown, man's life is much more diffi- hetti Dinner" will be held June

"You could stand two clubs a

Mr. Champion was right.

about rescuing me."

Mrs. Louis Gastaldini was, Plans for the event were made The sole criterion will be Conformity, Dr. Hilliard feels, elected Honored Royal Lady of following the election of officers. whether the story is of a defamis a real problem during adoles- the Order of the Royal Purple Co-conveners will be Mrs. Gas- atory nature or damaged the cence and the best weapon is Tuesday night when the order taldini, Mrs. Fedoruk and Mrs. foreign relations of West Germ-

"A father I know," she says, home of Mrs. N. J. Gurvich. She | Convener of the recent spring "was chuckling over his own wit succeeds Mrs. Lorraine Fedoruk. tea and sale, Mrs. Gastaldini, the other day. His son, it seems, Others elected to office were submitted her report on the suchad accused him of letting him- Mrs. Donald Crowe, associate cessful project and thanked her

The monthly draw was won by

Refreshments concluded the

entenniai now

The official British Columbia ing contributions of 110 writers, is now available in Prince Ru-

Editor-in-chief Dr. R. E. Watters has announced through the B.C. Centennial Committee that the 576-page "British Columbia: A Centennial Anthology" con-nearly 4,500 original manuscripts, most of which came from British Columbia. Submission also came in from every other Mrs. Keen started thinking and Mr. Abel would get into a Canadian province, from Ameriabout her next bid. She wasn't contract which they could not can states as widespread as California and North Carolina.

"Why would you take me out and even a few from England. "In addition, we went over scores of books and early news-"I couldn't stand clubs, I had papers to find the best previously printed material."

"As well as nearly 100 extracts from manuscripts, diaries and newspapers of the past and present, there are 55 articles, 10 Champion. "If I had wanted you short stories and 38 poems," he

"These represent the work of authors with an international reputation, such as Earle Birney, overcall at the two level vulnerlable, you don't need to worry Roderick Haig-Brown and Lister) Sinclair, as well as many B.C. writers making their first ap-There was no reason for Mr. New pearance in print."

"We are extremely proud of to think that two diamonds would be any better than two the fact that the anthology is clubs. Here is a good rule to fol_ in every way a British Colum-When partner is doubled, bia product, from the writers, don't rescue unless, before you artists, photographers and their heard the double, you had plan-subject material, to the design ned to make a free bid and a and manufacture of the actual constructive move toward game, book," Dr. Walters said.

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

This hand was a dangerous misfit for both sides. tains material selected from Whoever got the contract was in for a lot of trouble.

After Mr. Abel doubled Mr. Champion's two club overcall, excellent chance that Mrs. Keen quite sure whether she should make. rebid her spades or bid two diamonds. One thing was sure— of two clubs, New?" inquired Mr. she was not going to let the double stand.

Her problem was solved by Mr. a singleton!" Mr. New replied. New. He bid two diamonds. Mrs. clear. A profit at diamonds was lot better than you could stand acceptable to her, no matter who what would have happened to got to play the contract. She you at diamonds," barked Mr.

With a disgusted snort, Mr. to bid your best suit I would said. Champion bid three clubs and have doubled for a takeout. Mr. Abel doubled again. This Since I didn't double, I wasn't time Mrs. Keen lest justified in interested in your suit. When I letting the double stand.

East déaler Both sides vulnerable NORTH Mr. New ♠ IC 10 9 5 ₩ J 6 2 ♦ A Q 10 7 2 WEST Mr. Abel EAST Mrs. Keen A Q J 7 6 3

Q 7 5 4 3 K 9 8 6 5 A J 5 4 2 🦚 none SOUTH Mr. Champion A 8 2 ❤ A 10 8 * K Q 10 9 8 7 6

North 2 3 4

Mr. Champion went down one trick, losing a spade, a spade ruff by Mr. Abel, two clubs and a heart. He didn't lose two hearts because Mr. Abel obligingly led the suit in the latter stages of the play.

This was not a big loss and it is true that Mr. Champion would not have been permitted to play two clubs doubled anyway, because Mrs, Keen would have taken the double out.

The point is, however, that if Mr. New had passed, as he should have done, there was an

FAST RELIEF FOR

SICKS' CAPILANO BREWERY LIMITED

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia,

Westminster regiment planning "biggest ever reunion Saturday

|Westminster Regiment association holds its 1958 Melfa dinner. Largest delegation, however, in the Centennial year. The affair will be held in New is expected from the north and Westminster Saturday, May 24, interior of this province and to coincide with the Royal City's plans have been made for a | Centennial celebrations, T. A. motor cavalcade to arrive in

Germans propose new press law

BONN (P)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's cabinet Wednesday approved a proposed law making on the personal lives of foreign government leaders and their

A government spokesman told press conference the legislalament soon. If enacted, i would carry a maximum penalty, of two years in prison.

The biggest reunion since the Veterans of the unit will be ince will meet at Abbotsford at units return from overseas duty coming from all corners of the noon on Saturday before pro-in 1945 will take place when the continent to this "biggest ever" ceeding in the largest car caravan to enter New Westminster

Any former members of the Westminster Regiment in Prince Rupert who are interested in attending are asked to phone Mr. Harris at 6223 or

★ Fancy Sausage * Icelandic Herring

* Frozen Foods and Ice Cream * Italian & Greek Black Olives

* Home Made Ham & Rulle-Polsa * Fresh Assortment of Imported Cheeses

312 - 5th Sf.

Big Variety of Scandinavian Foods

Phone 4214

Prince Rupert Daily News Thursday, May 22, 1958

Stage coach spectacle revived BARKERVILLE, B.C. (P—Citizens were agog Wednesday, as the first stage in decades rolled into this dusty town, centre of the fabulous Cariboo gold rush of the 1860s. Fred Tregillus, 94, who has made Barkerville his home since 1885, waved wildly as the six-horse team roared along the sunshine-drenched street to draw up before St. Savior's Church for official ceremonies.

What was probably the last stage coach run in B.C. had come to an end.

