

PERSONALS

Lt. Cdr. D. H. Tye, RCN, returned to Vancouver this morning by plane after an official visit at HMCS Chatham. Lt. Cmdr. Tye is area officer Sea Cadets British Columbia with headquarters at HMCS Discovery.

William Gurney, 518 Musgrave Place, left this morning by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane for Vancouver en route to his home in Kamloops where he will spend a two-week holiday with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayo, 423 Third Avenue West are leaving the city tomorrow morning on the "Queen of the North" for Kitimat where Mr. Mayo will take up his new position as office manager for Bob Parker Ltd.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Christensen, 221 Sixth Avenue East, are leaving tonight on the Union Steamship Chilcotin for Vancouver. While away for two months, Mr. Christensen will attend a six-week course in advanced management at Banff School of Fine Arts.

Congregation Urged To Learn How To Pray

The congregation attending the "Week of Prayer" service last night in St. Paul's Lutheran church was urged to "learn to pray."

Many people feel that they are too busy to pray, but some of the busiest men of old, such as John Wesley and Martin Luther spent as much as two or three hours a day in prayer.

The chapter, founded in Prince Rupert January 11, 1910, was followed with Chinese dinner.

Following the affair, members joined the combined IODE chapters for a social evening, held at the home of Municipal regent, Mrs. W. E. Halliwell.

TINY TOTS Day Changed To Thursday

Tiny Tots Day Changed To Thursday

The Civic Centre Tiny Tot class previously held Wednesday afternoons from 2:30 to 3:30 will be held Thursday afternoons from 2:30 to 3:30 effective next week, to coincide with Wednesday closing of city stores. Director of the Civic Centre Tiny Tot class Mrs. F. Peagam announced today.

Some 50 youngsters attending the first session of the year, Wednesday, were given notification of the change, Mrs. Peagam reported.

The class, which has an enrollment of some 150 youngsters between the ages of 2 to 6, teaches songs, marching, folk dancing and action games. Mrs. Peagam is assisted by 12 leaders.

Dr. Large is leaving on his holiday and we wish him a very good one and hope that he will enjoy Honolulu. I will also be leaving for my vacation during February, also Honolulu bound and will tell you of some of the sights when I return at the end of February.

The Museum will be closed during February. We have arranged to have the museum taken care of by a caretaker, so we feel sure that Deane Freeman will see that everything is kept in good shape and nothing is damaged.

In March and April we hope that the school teachers will bring their pupils to visit the museum as I will be pleased to show them around.

Japanese Student Lauds Port Edward Hospitality

Takashi Newa, a second year student at the Mennonite Brethren Bible College in Winnipeg, was guest speaker at the Port Edward Gospel Chapel during the advent of the New Year.

Some 50 youngsters attending the first session of the year, Wednesday, were given notification of the change, Mrs. Peagam reported.

The class, which has an enrollment of some 150 youngsters between the ages of 2 to 6, teaches songs, marching, folk dancing and action games. Mrs. Peagam is assisted by 12 leaders.

The new Civic Centre Recreation Director Gordon A. McCutcheon will conduct a more advanced gym program for children between 5 and 6 during the regular period, Mrs. Peagam said.

Highlight of his visit was a dinner held in his honor by the Fort Edward Japanese Ladies' club whose president is Mrs. T. Kitisaka. Mr. Newa, whose parents are of the Buddhist faith, spoke on "Why I Became a Christian." He showed color slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Assisting Mrs. Kitisaka in the dinner were vice-president Mrs. Y. Ichihara, secretary Mrs. R. Yamamoto, and treasurer Mrs. Nakatsu. Cakes and cookies were donated by Mrs. Harvey Atchison.

Throughout his visit Mr. Newa expressed appreciation for the hospitality of the Japanese people. To those who assembled at the train to see him off, he spoke of a desire to return to Port Edward, perhaps, in the summer, to visit them all again and to further assist in the work at the Chapel.

CYO Planning Dance, Concert

A dance and concert were planned by the Catholic Youth Organization Sunday night when the group held its first meeting of the year in the Annunciation school auditorium.

A public dance will be held Friday night, January 18 in the auditorium. John Dumas was named convenor.

Plans were also formulated for the Annunciation parish St. Patrick's concert to be held in March. The annual event is sponsored by the CYO.

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

Lt. Cdr. D. H. Tye, RCN, returned to Vancouver this morning by plane after an official visit at HMCS Chatham. Lt. Cmdr. Tye is area officer Sea Cadets British Columbia with headquarters at HMCS Discovery.

William Gurney, 518 Musgrave Place, left this morning by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane for Vancouver en route to his home in Kamloops where he will spend a two-week holiday with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayo, 423 Third Avenue West are leaving the city tomorrow morning on the "Queen of the North" for Vancouver. While away for two months, Mr. Christensen will attend a six-week course in advanced management at Banff School of Fine Arts.

IODE Chapter Celebrates 47th Birthday

The 47th birthday of the Queen Mary chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire last night was celebrated when the members were guests of the management of the Broadway cafe.

The chapter, founded in Prince Rupert January 11, 1910, was followed with Chinese dinner.

Following the affair, members joined the combined IODE chapters for a social evening, held at the home of Municipal regent, Mrs. W. E. Halliwell.

TRAIN DERAILLED

Two car trucks which came off the tracks at Phelan, 20 miles east of Prince Rupert yesterday morning, caused a minor freight train derailment.

Cause of the derailment is unknown, a CNR spokesman said today. The train was city bound.

A public dance will be held Friday night, January 18 in the auditorium. John Dumas was named convenor.

Plans were also formulated for the Annunciation parish St. Patrick's concert to be held in March. The annual event is sponsored by the CYO.

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am! Stud the last of a baked ham with whole cloves. Place in a greased baking dish. Spread with 1/4 cup molasses. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) until piping hot, basting frequently. Good!

President John LaPorte slides at the dinner, as well as thanked members for their support during the past year and the committee in charge of the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

Vice-president Jeannette Clutter introduced two new members, Jerry Mueller and Henry Arlt, who brought the membership to 58.

Following the spiritual program games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

LEFTOVER HAM
Leftover ham can be ham what am!