IT MAY LOOK as if Inspector W.M. Taylor, RCMP (right) is allowing Mayor George E. Hills and City Clerk Bill Long just one last fling before running them in, but in fact they were just getting together for the official opening of Prince Rupert Softball association.

Braves Drop Champions Into Fourth Position

By JOE REICHLER
Canadian Press Sports Writer

A new generation of "whiz kids" appears to have emerged at Philadelphia. They promise to thrust the Phillies back into the National League spotlight after six years of frustration and disappointment.

Some of the original "whiz kids," like Richie Ashburn, Willie Jones, Granny Hamner, Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons are still on the scene, but they have been forced into the background by such youngsters as Ed Bouchee, Harry Anderson, Bob Bowman, Jack Sanford, Don Cardwell and Dick Farrell.

PASS DODGERS

This sextet has been largely responsible for the Phils' current streak which has produced seven victories in their last 10 games.

SPROUT'S TROUT

Three of the six were instrumental in Philadelphia's 10-8 victory over Cincinnati Tuesday night, which snapped the Redlegs' 12-game winning streak and knocked them out of a first place tie with Milwaukee.

The victory also boosted the Phillies past Brooklyn into third place in the tight National League race.

The three were outfielder Harry Anderson, first baseman Ed Bouchee and pitcher Dick Farrell.

Anderson walloped a home run and single, drove in two runs and scored two. Bouchee also hit a home run and single, drove in two runs and scored two. Farrell received credit for his second victory.

The Braves took undisputed possession of first place, with a 3-2 victory over the Dodgers, who dropped into fourth place, 3½ games off the pace.

DDETROIT WIN

In other National League games, the New York Giants defeated St. Louis 5-3 and Pittsburgh outslugged the Chicago Cubs 8-6.

Rain played havoc with the American League, forcing postponement of the scheduled games between Kansas City and New York, Baltimore and Cleveland, and Chicago and Washington.

In the only game played, Detroit blanked Boston 2-0.

A pair of old Dodge killers—Joe Adcock and Bob Buhl—did it again to Brooklyn. Adcock settled for a triple, but it drove in one of Milwaukee's two runs of loser Don Newcombe. Adcock carried over the second run himself on a single by Chuck Tanner.

BRUTON'S TRIPLE
Billy Bruton drove in Milwaukee's final run with a sixth-inning triple.

Buhl, who whopped the Dodgers eight times last year, was the winner.

A pair of home runs by Hank Sauer, the second one coming in the fifth after Ken Boyer, St. Louis third baseman, had opened the gates with a pair of errors, helped the Giants defeat the Cards.

Frank Thomas banged a home run, two doubles and a single, drove in two runs and scored two as the Pirates downed Chicago.

SPROUT'S TROUT—Looks like carrying this seven-pound trout home will be a bigger job than landing it was for nine-year-old Manton "Skippy" Emerson. The youngster made older anglers' eyes pop when he boated the prize at China Lake, Maine. The fish makes him eligible for Maine's "The One That Didn't Get Away Club."

Mounties Win 3-2 After Wild Throw

By The Canadian Press

A wild throw by pitcher Hank Aguirre cost him the decision as Vancouver Mounties defeated San Diego Padres 3-2 in a Pacific Coast league baseball game here Tuesday night.

With the score tied 2-2, Kal Segrist opened the eighth with a single.

Jim Marshall bunted and Aguirre, after fielding the ball, threw it high over second base and both runners were safe. Segrist went to third.

Segrist scored what proved to be the winner after a sacrifice fly by Len Green.

It was a tough loss for Aguirre, who gave up only three hits. The left-hander got himself into trouble, though, by walking eight men.

Dick Hanlon spaced five hits as Los Angeles beat the San Francisco Seals 5-1 and Hanlon posted his fourth straight victory with no losses.

Homers by George Freese, Joe Macko and Frank Ernaga enabled Portland to defeat Sacramento 4-1.

Seattle knocked Hollywood out of the league lead, exploding for four runs in the 10th inning for a 7-5 win over the Stars.
