Pioneer Couple Marks 50 Years of Marriage

A pioneer couple, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Johnson, 137 Seventh Avenue East, who have spent 49 of their 50 married years in Prince Rupert, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Saturday night when more than 80 friends gathered in the Valhalla hall.

Married in Seattle, June 15,

1907, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson came to Prince Rupert the following spring when Mr. Johnson took up employment as a carpenter and joiner.

Their youngest son Ralph of this city and his wife, hosts for the affair, received the guests.

Also present for the occasion was eldest son Elvin of San Francisco.

Pink and white streamers, matching tapers and a profusion of flowers bedecked the hall. A huge floral centrepiece, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Alex Michell, formed the focal point on the bride's table.

A large array of gifts was on display and a tiny gold-tinted tree was laden with smaller gifts.

Out-of-town guest Sam Johnson of San Francisco proposed the toast to the bride and groom of 50 years ago cut special wedding anniversary cake in photo at right.

Guests enjoyed a smorgasbord during the congratulatory addresses made by several close friends of the guests of honor.

Telegrams were received from Seattle, Vancouver, Chilliwack and relatives in Sweden, who also wired flowers.

Serviteurs were Mrs. R. A. Johnson, Mrs. Reginald Webber, Mrs. Rayner Montgomery, Mrs. T. A. McMeekin, Mrs. Bjorn Wick, Mrs. Alfred Ritchie and Mrs. Anton Strand.

The wedding cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Arne Husøy.

Dancing and community singing followed supper while many guests took moving pictures of the function.

Other out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Sam Johnson and Mrs. Louis Pringle of San Francisco, Mrs. Carl Johnson of Seattle and Mrs. Martin Miller and Mrs. Maryann Glemp of Terrace.

Bride-Elect Bettie Stene Given Shower

Miss Rhoda Wong and Miss Jean Mould were joint-hostesses for a miscellaneous shower Friday night when friends gathered at their home in honor of Miss Bettie Stene's marriage to Bruce Horan, which will take place July 6 in the United Church, Shellbrook, Saskatchewan.

Following games the guest of honor was presented her large assortment of gifts and refreshments were served.

Invited guests were Miss Jean Smurthwaite, Miss Avis Mould, Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Mrs. Harry Nelson, Mrs. Hubert Wong, Mrs. Ivan Tschabold, Mrs. Edward Farrington, Mrs. R. Campbell, Mrs. Percy Wong, Mrs. Michael Karasovsky, Mrs. A. C. Stegavik and Mrs. Thelma Lemon.

The Prince Rupert Boy Scout association recently passed a vote of thanks to patrons and donors who made the recent campaign such a success. P. F. P. Bird reported that $1,200 was raised during the drive.

Highlights of the Local association meeting held last Wednesday night heard plans made to hold a Scout camp at Lakelse Lake, the first ten days of July. Dr. Morris Wayman, William Dilben and Mervin Martin were named to head the committee.

Eric Murray of the Bank of Montreal was installed secretary succeeding Gordon Farquhar, who was transferred to Vancouver last month.

Mrs. R. N. Boychuk was named publicly chairman.
