OFFICIAL OPENING OF ROAD TO KITIMAT SET NOVEMBER 28

The Terrace to Kitimat highway will be officially opened Thursday, November 28 according to Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi.

It was learned nere that the highways minister hopes to attend the opening ceremonies himself.

The gravel road over which 200 cars a weekend have been travelling is completed with the exception of one major bridge. There are two log bridges, one Bailey bridge one completed concrete ornamental bridge and one spot where a river has to be forded. Paving will start next year.

Despite the occasional rough spots and numerous signs starting "Postitively No Access" motorists have been travelling the road for more than a month now, many of which have been into Prince Rupert.
