Open Letter To Mrs. Jones Club Publicity Director

(From The Vancouver Province) Dear Mrs. Jones:

Is your club having its annual election of officers? And are the members going to ask you to be publicity convener? We'll be very glad to hear from you with news of your club's activities. But, please, Mrs. Jones, will you make it easy for us to welcome your copy.

We do realize that at your meetings, the members call each other by their given names. But it is INCORRECT in newspaper copy, unless the member is a divorcee. Your president is MRS. JOHN SMITH, not MRS. JEAN SMITH. Even if she is a widow she is correctly called Mrs. John Smith.

So again, we beg of you, to save us many staff hours of searching the city directory or trying to trace a member who knows the right name, will you please send us correct copy. That means either the husband's first name or two initials in any mention of your members.

Thank you so much for your attention to this matter, and the best of luck in your new job.

Hopefully, - The Women's Page Staff of The Vancouver Province. P.S. Would you please put your phone number on any copy you submit.

Editor's note: The identical rules apply to The Prince Rupert Daily News, Thank you.
