CARLING'S

Sought By Local Outboarders

By GLADYS BALDWIN

Dear Mr. Weatherman;

Do you think you could arrange to have the sun shine all day tomorrow? It's like this—the Prince Rupert Outboard association want to hold their third Outboard Regatta and if possible would like to know if they can depend on the weather.

If the weather shilly shallys around the officials stew around until the last minute, and you know, you just can't have a race without some preparation. For instance—all the equipment has to be taken down to the dock, the buoys put out, the Duchess of Edinburgh Chapter noon so she can arrange to have away. Don't stay too long Sten! the 150-mile test of navigational soft drinks delivered.
