A quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral last night when Canon Basil S. Proctor united in marriage Mrs. Viola Elizabeth Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Richard Johnson of Vancouver and Horace Joseph Bulman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bulman of Saltspring Island.

For the occasion the bride wore a copper-taffeta off-the-shoulder gown in cocktail-length, a picture hat of glazed champagne taffeta and a corsage of pink roses.

RED ROSES

Attending her mother, Miss Jean Margaret Anderson chose to wear a black and white full-skirted gown, a tiny black hat and a corsage of red roses.

RCMP Constable Bastion Greenway was best man.

An informal reception was held at the bride's home on 1014 Alfred Street, the future residence of the newlyweds.

Mr. Bulman is employed with the B.C. Forest Service as skipper on the "White Spruce II."

ABUNDANT LIFE

BY ORAL ROBERTS

VICTIM OF CEREBRAL PALSY HEALED

Pity is a beautiful virtue, but compassion is lovelier. Pity extends sympathy and condole, but compassion wraps her arms around the object.

The priest and the Levite had pity upon the Jew as he lay helpless by the wayside, but compassion came by in the person of the lowly Samaritan. Not content to sympathize from afar, he went down into the ditch; made the dying man's problem his own personal business.

That is what motivates my ministry. I know what it is to be dying by the wayside. I had tuberculosis in both lungs. I know the pity and sympathy of loved ones and friends—but there is one who had compassion for me. He is the same one who had compassion upon a blind man named Bartimaeus, upon a demoniac, a sinking disciple, a weeping widow, a dying thief. When he stopped by me one night and healed me, a compassion for other sufferers filled my soul.

For the past 10 years, a vibrant desire to tell others about him has sent me across this country and around the world. I've felt the thrill of compassion over and over in the ministry to the needy. When I'm able to help through faith and God's power, my soul leaps with joy. I, too, have been a sufferer. I know the marvelous recovery in the touch of the Master's hand.

Let me quote a letter from one who was helped through faith in God. "I took my young you, and faith, to be effective, must be used. I could not say,

"Turn your faith loose." I believe that's exactly what happens. When you believe God and expect him to do what he has promised, then you cut the bonds off your faith. You release its potential power so that it becomes active for your benefit as well as for others. Only belief, and life becomes abundant for you."
